Dear Evelyn R. Frantz,

Thank you for your letter dated March 19, 1969. Please forgive me for waiting so long before a reply is written.

I have Foreign Gen Friends and TV out of my life. Now, my writing is mainly family or general correspondence and genealogy. But, I am not a professional genealogist. I had a Mar 20 reply to another inquirer of this Fam. Org. He wrote me a short answer on March 24. Our status with genealogy is the same. He wrote, "Keep faith and relax. You'll make it."

I included, "In March 69 Gen Helper I had entries originating 2 Fam. Orgs. — Frantz & Pocahontas. Perhaps, this is too much for me at the present; at least, very little on this one is accomplished.

A beautiful Patriarchal Blessing is had by myself — "To come forth in first Resurrection to do genealogy during the Millenium." That helps very much, of course, but I thought I could do some now. But, perhaps, today's conditions make this very difficult — if not impossible.

I am a committed mental patient (epilepsy). I am on a locked ward where very little storage area is had. all my records are in Storage presently — which "helps" very much.

When I feel I have a thing which helps you, I'll send it. Presently, the Fam. Org. appears to be on a very shaky basis. But, with sometime & work — when good health is had — things should be looking better.

By all means I'll keep faith — and relax also. Yes, I'll make it sometime. If you desire, write

Mr. Jacob Frantz
No. Manchester, Ind 46000

&/or Mr. Frank Frantz
Roann, Ind 46000

They are first cousins of my Mother. Proper relationship to me is first Cou. once removed — "1C1R."

Two other inquiries on Frantz F.O. are being written the same as above. They are Robert N. Evans, Jr. 1111 Carley Street, Sweeny, Tx 77480 and Mr. Willis R. Bowman, 1426 Mason

P.S. As you can perhaps tell, this is from a sincere ~~Latter~~ member of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-day Saints. Perhaps you may desire ~~become~~ to investigate this group presided over by President David O. McKay from Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111. This man was born 8 Sep 1873 and is now 96 years of age.

I ~~am~~ was 44 on 30 July 69. I am an ordained Priest in the Adult Aaronic Priesthood. ~~I am~~ (excited) ~~I~~

11 Sep 69 - P.S. No. 2

The above P.S. was written Wed., Sep 10, but I seemed to be getting a little upset so I was put to rest a few hours yesterday. It was ~~good~~ best.

But my dear Sister, ~~Rosemary~~ Evelyn Rosemary Frantz, for the present we can be keeping our faith and relax. This important work will be completed sometime - and - as soon as possible. Undoubtedly, we will be corresponding with each other in the future.

Frantz is in my ancestry much. It is my Mother's maiden name: Minnie Pearl Frantz, dau. of Frantz, Amaziah F and ~~Baker~~ Baker, Laura. And then a generation or 2 earlier a Frantz m. a Frantz. I have it traced to Frantz, Michael II and Zug, Magdalena, to 1687. They had 6 s. & 1 dau. I know to have more, but it is not in my memory. But, definitely I will keep my faith and relax knowing sometime it will be completed.

Dear Lady:

I have before me your letter of Oct.24,1971 RE:Frantz

I do not believe that I can be of any help to you.My people came to Indiana about 1870, directly from Penn.,The first know ansector was Abraham Frantz 1764-1828 Manchester Twp.York Co.Pa. m
Elizabeth Groff 1766-1836 I do not know parents of either at this time.,or where they came from.

In an attemtp to help you I suggest you write--
Rev. Jacob Frantz
RR 3
North Manchester Ind.
From him and some other sources I do have some notes, but can find nothing as current as your dates.

Frantz's were many in early history of this country. Most and maybee all were in Penn. early, then into Maryland and Virginia.Most of the ones that are in Indiana that I have met--came by way of the Virginia group by way of Ohio.--Montgomery Co. Very little work on this family has been done as a group as a hole. It shure would be nice if it could be done.

If you should get this untagled--I would appreciate a copy for my files.

Will close, again Sorry, but good luck.

Sincerely

Evelyn Rosemary Frantz

DREISBACH'S LUTHERAN AND REFORMED CHURCH BAPTISMAL RECORD
1774-1822

Translated from the German by Esther Shenk
Alphabetically arranged by Dr. Charles A. Fisher, F. I. A. G. Selingsgrove, Pa.

This church is situated in the beautiful Buffalo Valley, Union County, Pa., about midway between Lewisburg and Mifflinburg. Settlers began to come into this section as early as 1770, and Lutheran services were held as early as 1771. The congregation was organized about 1773, and the first baptismal record was started in 1774. Dreisbach's was the church home of some noted people of Central Pennsylvania. Since the date ofbirth is of importance than that of the date of baptism, only the birth dates appear.

QUARANTINED!

The inhabitants of this place have been stricken with GENEALOGY FEVER, a deadly and infectious disease.

SYMPTOMS: Notepapers stuffed in pockets and files; heart palpitations at the sight of gravestones and old trunks filled with letters; bloodshot eyes from excessive microfilm exposure; erratic speech patterns and punctuated with pilgrims and princes; cold sweat upon the arrival of the daily mail.

THE FRANTZ FAMILY.

The writer was lately asked the question, whether all the old families of Garrett county had been done up and made into raw material for history. The answer was no: not by any means, and here comes the proof. The Frantz genealogy shall be the next subject for fair and just treatment.

The ancestors of the Frantz family were among the very earliest to settle in Bedford county, Pa., and were Germans —comfortably seated in Friend's Cove. About the year 1800. Three brothers, John, Joseph and Jonathan, moved into Allegany county, Md. John the oldest settled on Mill Run, near the State line, had 16 children and died many years ago. His descendants are numerous, but all or nearly so are now outside of this State. Joseph cast his lot near Selbysport, and Jonathan, the youngest, in what has been known as the Cove. This name was given to his newly made opening, because he came from a "Cove" in another State, but he was too modest to add Frantz to the name, which would have been a very proper act, if done.

Joseph was the most prominent of the three, and indeed of the whole family. THE FRANTZ FAMILY.

The writer was lately asked the question, whether all the old families of Garrett county had been done up and made into raw material for history. The answer was no: not by any means, and here comes the proof. The Frantz genealogy shall be the next subject for fair and just treatment.

The ancestors of the Frantz family were among the very earliest to settle in Bedford county, Pa., and were Germans —comfortably seated in Friend's Cove. About the year 1800. Three brothers, John, Joseph and Jonathan, moved into Allegany county, Md. John the oldest settled on Mill Run, near the State line, had 16 children and died many years ago. His descendants are numerous, but all or nearly so are now outside of this State. Joseph cast his lot near Selbysport, and Jonathan, the youngest, in what has been known as the Cove. This name was given to his newly made opening, because he came from a "Cove" in another State, but he was too modest to add Frantz to the name, which would have been a very proper act, if done.

Joseph was the most prominent of the three, and indeed of the whole family. By occupation, a tanner and farmer —a leading man, not only of his district, but Allegany county—a Justice of the Peace for many years—a county commissioner four years accounting from 1830. Elected to the Legislature 1835, with Wm. McMahon, Wm. Matthews and Dr. J. Berry. The Canal company wanted aid from the State, in the then new enterprise, and it is yet remembered how reluctant he was to pledge the faith of the State in that work. He at last yielded to the pressure from his constituents; always Democratic, as the followers of Gen. Jackson were or had to be in those intensified times. He was a good, honest and useful citizen, with a very positive nature; indeed such is a marked characteristic of the whole race. He died about the year 1850. He left surviving four sons and two daughters—John, George, Thomas B., Wm. F. and Rachel, wife of John Slicer, a prominent and respectable man in his day—died in 1873, and she in 1869, and the other daughter was the wife of Samuel Jacoe. John, sometimes called "Jack," was very much like his father in many respects—always emphatic and decided—a tanner and farmer—honest, cautious and clear headed in business. He was elected to the Legislature as a Democrat in 1852 with,

Dr. John Everett, Richard Fairall and J. M. Price. He did not like politics of any shade—drifted away from Democracy in the Know Nothing upheaval. Was a staunch Unionist during the war, and remained in that faith until his death. Such was his merit and character that he could have had most any office, had he so wished. His mind was not only strong and decided, but of an ingenious and inventive turn. He once told the writer, when he was a boy, he nearly broke his back picking up apples. In after years he invented a machine to lift them from the ground, which would do the tedious work of a dozen hands. He never asked for a patent for his ingenious and useful contrivance. He died in 1870 near Selbysport, leaving his widow, who was a member of the Rody family, very prominent in Somerset county. His sons are "Jack," Hiram (dead) and Benton, four nicely trained daughters, all married and living, except the wife of Jasper Guard.

Jonathan Frantz, brother of Joseph, already mentioned, lived all the days of his life on his Cove property, which by his accumulations and prudence became quite extensive and valuable. At his death in 1854 he was very comfortably fixed indeed. He was energetic, upright in all things, and of good business habits—had a heavy German brogue and signed his name to his will in german. He was always a Whig—a blue Whig, and that term meant very strong politics in his time. He was in this respect the very counterpart of his brother Joseph, but both strictly honest in this and all other relations of their active and useful lives. This highly respected old man left ten children—five of each sex; Joseph (his executor) John, William, Jonathan and Joshua; and Anne, wife of Austin Spiker; Rebecca, wife of Jonathan Coddington; Catherine, wife of George Wolf; Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Beeghly, and huldah, wife of Henry Spiker. So far as we are aware this old patriarch never had any taste or wish for offices, at any rate he never filled any. His ambition was to vote for good measures and men, and against bad measures and men. His sons nearly all of whom are living, are active, industrious and prosperous citizens, but are no longer concentrated in the Cove region.

In the late "unpleasantness" the Frantzs with one accord took the Union side in their characteristic way that is strongly and decidedly. At least ten of them enlisted as follows:

Dear Ms. Frantz:

I am the family historian for several branches of the DeHaven family and we have extensive files on this and allied names.

Among these I find:

George W. Frantz, had a son
Albert K. Frantz, m. 1906 Laura Yeakle, d/o Ambrose and Beatrice Frantz, b. 27 Apr 1907 (Gilbert) Yeakle, had children
Ambrose Yeakle Frantz, b. 1 Jul 1909
Virginia H. Frantz, b. 5 Jun 1918

Also, apparently unrelated to the above:

Louise Frantz married Ross Wertz, children: Mary and George

Charles Frantz married Diane (Roosa) Stewart

This information is what is on the file cards---Yeakle is a Pennsylvania name so perhaps that is a clue as to the George Frantz fragment---Ross Wertz is part of our DeHaven clan and is found in the Fountain County, Indiana, area.

Diane Roosa is also part of our clan and I believe there were no children to this marriage---the Roosa family was from southwestern Ohio but I think Diane and Charles removed to a western state.

No reply is necessary to this letter, just tho't perhaps this might give you a clue.

Most sincerely

Florence Dyke

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Clubb:

My great^{5}-grandfather, Sebastian Frantz, was born 4 Oct 1732 in Wurttemberg, Germany, according to his family Bible, on display at the Old Stone Fort Museum, Schoharie, NY.

I would like to find out more about Sebastian's parentage, if possible, and have been referred to you. My mother is Marian Andrews; her mother was Alice France; Alice's father was Cyrus Henry France; Cyrus' father was John W. France; I think John's father was H.D. and H.D.'s father was David. I know David France's father was Sebastian Frantz. The theoretical linkage is suggested by federal census data from Cherry Valley (Otsego Co.), NY.

Could you provide assistance in obtaining more information concerning (1) David, his children and grandchildren, or (2) Sebastian and his wife Anna Fritz? Anna was born in 1733 in Wurttemberg. Both Sebastian and Anna died in Seward (Schoharie Co.), NY, he in 1805 and she in 1816. Enclosed is a SASE for your use in reply. Thank you in advance for any help you may be able to provide.

Sincerely yours,

Ronald P. Koch

Dear Rosemary:

I'm sorry I've been forever without writing, but my health this year has been rotten. My migraines are five days apart, and then I've added diverticulitis (sp.?) this year--all of which has kept me away from making sense at my typewriter. I'm just up now so can't be sure of this. But I just got a letter today which was interesting, so I'll have my husband get it copied tonight, and this in the mail to you. I've been holding several things for you.

Several months ago I got a list of names of Branstetters in Washington and Oregon, and mailed them my form letter. What few answers I got I'm sending you. Maybe somewhere.....! I've gotten to the Library just once this year and ran the 1850 and 1860 census of Pike Co., Mo. I thought this would clear up the Peter mixup. But I couldn't find him on the 1850 census, and the 1860 census was so faint that I couldn't be sure of anything. The good Mormon Library in L.A. was supposed to reopen after the Fourth but I haven' gotten there yet. It does take quite a bit of umph to look at them! The Mormon Library has been closed since last fall, and the L.A. Library has only 2 microfilm readers and very poor film.

The Henry Branstetter that you found in Laurel Co., Ky. is the one I have studied so long. I have him on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 census and if you still have my recap of letters and research that I got out several years ago I list him on page 2. I thought the 14 year old boy's name was Daniel instead of David but maybe I just wanted it to be and so thought it looked like Daniel. Daniel was the brother of my Melinda and that Henry might also be her brother. Melinda and that Henry were born in Tenn. And the older Elizabeth, age 65 in 1850, might have been the Eliz. Branstetter who vouched for Melinda's mother-in-law, Mary Forbes, for her request for widow's pension from the Rev. War. I have wondered about this family for a long time, but just can't come up with the connection.

Until your letter I hadn't realized that the Branstetters (all spellings!) had spread out a bit in Kentucky. But then, such a large family had to spread somewhere!

I'm constantly amused with the story being handed down about a son being born at sea while coming to America. This story has gotten twisted several times, and I keep wishing I knew who it really was. The one that is credited with being born at sea in Mrs. Maxwell's material couldn't be the Frederick, born 1795, the father of Peter Lancaster, etc., and still be on that ship in 1765! She has lumped two generations together, but still has the wrong one born at sea.

Hope what I'm sending makes some new sense to you. It is all that has happened here for months. I'm still hoping to get to the newly rebuilt Mormon Library for a lot of census reading. But so probably is everybody else in Southern California. We've had so much work done on our house this year (which also exhausted me) that our only trip this year will be a business trip in Oct. to Texas and Okla. But I hope to be dropped at a library to see what I can see! Keep me posted. Your not hearing from me doesn't mean I have lost interest -- just energy!

Yours,

Doris

DEAR ROSEMARY,

THANK YOU FOR YOUR LETTER OF 25 Nov 1980. I THINK YOU GAVE ME MORE THAN I AM EQUIPPED TO HANDLE. I WAS PRIMARILY INTERESTED IN FINDING OUT HOW MR. ALVIN BRIGHTBILL COULD HAVE GOTTEN SO FAR OFF BASE IN THE EARLIER GENERATIONS HE SHOWED ON HIS RESEARCH. AT LEAST I DON'T HAVE ANYTHING ON A MICHAEL FRANTZ III DESCENDANT OF MACHAEL I HAVING 8 SONS NAMES HENRY, ISRAEL, ISIAH, ELIAS, DAVID, AMOS, JACOB, MICHAEL. THAT IS WHY I THINK HE IS CONFUSED WITH PERHAPS A MICHAEL DESCENDANT OF CHRISTIAN I, BUT THAT DOES NOT APPEAR TO SHOW ON THE CHART OF CHRISTIAN I THAT I SENT YOU.

I8LL INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING/ADDRESSES MR. DAVID BRIGHTBILL SUGGESTED THAT I CONTACT FOR INFO RE HARRY FRANTZ OF WASHINGTON, D. C. CA 1940.

MR. CALEB FRANTZ, 1629 KLOHR RD, BETHAL, PA, 19507. HE WAS ON THE COMMITTEE THAT WORKED ON THE MATTHIAS FRANTZ GEN.

ELLA BRIGHTBILL, APT 10-B, WILLA TERRACE, WILLA STREET, LEBANON, PA. 17042. SISTER OF ALVIN F. BRIGHTBILL AND MORE KNOWLEDGABLE OF HER BROTHER THAN ANY ONE ELSE ACCORDING TO DAVID.

DAVID BRIGHTBILL, 5 WOODRIDGE ROAD, MONTGOMERY, ILL. 60538. HE SAYS HE HAS NOT BEEN INTERESTED IN GENEALOGY. HE DID SERVE IN VIENNA WITH DR. DONALD F. DURNBAUGH, PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY AT BETHANY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, OAKBROOK, ILL. ALVIN BRIGHTBILL WAS ALSO A MEMBER OF THE FACULTY FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS.

MRS. MARGARET ELLER, 25381 CHAMPLAIN ROAD, LAGUNA HILLS, CAL 92653
YOU MIGHT WRITE TO HER. SHE ANSWERED MY QUERY IN THE MENNONITE MESSENGER AND SAYS THAT SHE HAS COPIED ALL OF MR. LOWELL BEACHLER'S RECORDS. I DO NOT KNOW IF SHE REALLY HAS ALL OF THEM OR JUST THE ONES THAT PERTAIN TO HER OWN LINE WHICH IS: 1. MICHAEL FRANTZ I; 2. MICHAEL FRANTZ II AND MAGDALENA ZUG; 3. DAVID FRANTZ AND MARIA ELIZABETH GARST; 4. SAMUEL FRANTZ AND MARY FISHER; 5. JACOB FRANTZ AND LEAH BRUBAKER; 6. MAGDALENA FRANTZ AND NOAH BRUBAKER; 7 JACOB BRUBAKER AND GRACE FOOTE; 8 MARGARET BRUBAKER MARRIED TO ELDON ELLER. HER BROTHER HAS BEEN RESEARCHING BRUBAKER LINEAGE FOR YEARS AND I THINK YOU ARE SOMEWHERE IN THE BRUBAKER LINE TOO.
PERHAPS, YOU ARE ALREADY IN TOUCH WITH HER, BUT SHE SAYS MOST OF HER MATERIAL IS ON THE DANIEL FRANTZ MATERIAL BUT A LOT OF IT OLD AND IN ORIGINAL HANDWRITING. I HAVE ONLY HEARD FROM HER ONCE.

MRS. CAROLYN BRINES, 102 OLD COLONY ROAD, WELLESLEY HILLS, MASS. 02181
IS A 9TH GENERATION DESCENDANT OF CHRISTIAN I THRU MATTHIAS AND ELIZABETH BOESHARE, LYDIA FRANTZ AND JACOB WENGER, DAVID WENGER AND LYDIA WENGER, ETC. 2ND COUSIN MARRIAGE AGAIN. SHE AND HER HUSBAND ARE RETIRED AND GO TO LANCASTER CO SEVERAL TIMES A YEAR FOR RESEARCH.

WHEN I GET COPY OF DAVID I WILL, I SHALL MAKE YOU A COPY. SHOULD BE INTERESTING FOR THE SIGNATURES ALONE. I HAVE A LADY BACK IN FINCASTLE CHECKING FOR MORE LAND RECORDS THAT MIGHT GIVE MORE INFO ON HIM. THE 1828 AND 1815 DEEDS REFER TO ORIGINAL PURCHASES AROUND 1795. I MUST ALSO WRITE TO ROANOKE HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND SEE IF THERE ARE ANY EARLY MAPS SHOWING LOCATION OF VARIOUS PROPERTIES.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND THANKS AGAIN.

Hi,

I saw your name in the Genealogical Helper and thought I would write because of your name. Any longshot.

In my family I have an ancestor by the name of Isabella Frantz who married Warren H. Monett. She was born October 18, 1845 or 1847 and died on July 12, 1903 in Kansas. Her parents were Jacobe Frantz who was born October 7, 1812 and died July 14, 1887 in Kahoka, Missouri and Catherine Frantz who was born February 5, 1818 and died April 21, 1883 or 1885, in Kahoka, Missouri. Jacobe's father was John Frantz.

Would you have any connection with this line of Frantz or have any idea of who would be interested in it? If so, I would really appreciate hearing from you. I would be glad to exchange any information I have.

SAMUEL FRANTZ, tinner; De Graff; was born in Logan Co., O., near Bellefontaine, May 7, 1827. His parents, Abraham Frantz and Catherine (Houtz) Frantz, were both natives of Virginia; the third generation behind the present were natives of Switzerland. His father was a farmer, and Mr. Frantz passed his youth on his father's farm. At the age of 20 years he left home to learn the tinner's trade; he passed the period of his apprenticeship in Logansville, Huntsville and Bellefontaine; then for two years worked as journeyman-tinner in several different places, when he entered into partnership in Huntsville; the firm was known as Foster & Frantz; here he remained five years. It was at this place he married, April 3, 1852, Miss Mary Ann Leonard, who died in October, 1855, leaving him with two sons, since grown to maturity. Frank P. Frantz, who married Miss Sallie Gessner and is living in De Graff, and Sydney J. Frantz, who is working at the tinner's trade at LaRue. July 1st, 1856, he married Miss Harriet M. Evans; by this union there were two children--Miss Kate Frantz, who married S.K. Neer and resides in De Graff, and Charles A. Frantz, who died Oct. 27, 1879, aged 19 years. After the five years in Huntsville, he spent two years in journeyman-work; then in the spring of 1859 he engaged in business at West Liberty under the firm name of H.W. Jones & Co.; and afterward at Sidney on his own responsibility. This continued till the spring of 1862, when he sold out his business and the following two years he engaged in journeyman-work; it was here he was bereft of his companion Feb. 8, 1862. In 1864 he enlisted in the hundred-day service, 132nd O.N.G., and went through all their experiences at White House Landing, Bermuda Hundred, Petersburg and Richmond, and at the intrenched works near Norfolk; after this term of service had expired he returned to his home, and ten days after his arrival he was drafted and was connected with the 19th O.V.I., a regiment, by the way, which he never saw; when the detachment was on the way to join their regiment they were given into the command of Sherman, joined his army at Atlanta and with him marched to the sea; was mustered out at the close of the war; he returned home, and in the following October settled in business in De Graff. Jan. 19, 1866 he married Mrs. R.L. Thomas, of this place, and they have one son living--Sam. Cary Frantz, now 12 years of age, and one, Harry Frantz, who died when but 7 months old. On coming to De Graff, Mr. Frantz at first took charge of a tinshop which he soon purchased, and has since controlled; it embraces stoves, tin, glass and queensware. After this chequered experience Mr. Frantz has settled into a flourishing business which must bring him competency and comfort.

Dear Rosemary:

I recently ran across a notation that you were researching the Frantz families. I too am connected to the Frantz family through my Great-Grandfather.

I am searching for a marriage between an Elizabeth Frantz and a Hill, first name unknown. ca. 1810-1829..... My family were in Stark Co., Ohio in 1830, and according to later Census records of their Son, they were both from Penn.

The son, is my gr-grandfather Jonathan Hill, born 8 Dec. 1830, in N.Lawrence or Brookfield, Tusc. Twop., Stark Co. Ohio

If you have any connection with this family, or think we may be connected, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Enclosed is a self addressed envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Jean Nelson

He is held in esteem by his fellow citizens as a man of sterling worth.

SAMUEL FRANTZ, tinner; De Graff; was born in Logan Co., O., near Bellefontaine, May 7, 1827. His parents, Abraham Frantz and Catherine (Hontz) Frantz, were both natives of Virginia; the third generation behind the present were natives of Switzerland. His father was a farmer, and Mr. Frantz passed his youth on his father's farm. At the age of 20 years he left home to learn the tinner's trade; he passed the period of his apprenticeship in Logansville, Huntsville and Bellefontaine; then for two years worked as journeyman-tinner in several different places, when he entered into partnership in Huntsville; the firm was known as Foster & Frantz; here he remained five years. It was at this place he married, April 3, 1852, Miss Mary Ann Leonard, who died in October, 1855, leaving him with two sons, since grown to maturity. Frank P. Frantz, who married Miss Sallie Gessner and is living in De Graff, and Sydney J. Frantz, who is working at the tinner's trade at La Rue. July 1st, 1856, he married Miss Harriet M. Evans; by this union there were two children—Miss Kate Frantz, who married S. K. Neer and resides in De Graff, and Charles A. Frantz, who died Oct. 27, 1879, aged 19 years. After the five years in Huntsville, he spent two years in journeyman-work; then in the spring of 1859 he engaged in business at West Liberty under the firm name of H. W. Jones & Co.; and afterward at Sidney on his own responsibility. This continued till the spring of 1862, when he sold out his business and the following two years he engaged in journeyman-work; it was here he was bereft of his companion Feb. 8, 1862. In 1864 he enlisted in the hundred-day service, 132nd O. N. G., and went through all their experiences at White House Landing, Bermuda Hundred, Petersburg and Richmond, and at the intrenched works near Norfolk; after this term of service had expired he returned to his home, and ten days after his arrival he was drafted and was connected with the 19th O. V. I., a regiment, by the way, which he never saw; when the detachment was on the way to join their regiment they were given into the command of Sherman, joined his army at Atlanta and with him marched to the sea; was mustered out at the close of the war; he returned home, and in the following October settled in business in De Graff. Jan. 19, 1866 he married Mrs. R. L. Thomas, of this place, and they have one son living—Sam. Cary Frantz, now 12 years of age, and one, Harry Frantz, who died when but 7 months old. On coming to De Graff, Mr. Frantz at first took charge of a tinshop which he soon purchased, and has since controlled; it embraces stoves, tin, glass and queensware. After this chequered

Martin House In Preble Co. Tour

By Tim H. Miller

EATON, Ohio — The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Frantz, 125 South Barron St., is one of six Preble County homes of historical note to be included in a tour sponsored by the Preble County Historical Society Sunday, June 25.

The tour is the first public project of its type undertaken by the society which was organized in January 1972 to further the historical interests in the county and to protect and preserve the many artifacts of the area.

Tickets for the tour costing $3 for non-members of the society and $1.50 for members will be on sale at each of the homes. Trustees located in each township also will have tickets.

Persons participating in the tour may view any one, several or all of the homes at their leisure during the afternoon hours.

The six homes included on the tour are Horns Hill, now the residence of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Smith, 435 North Commerce St., Lewisburg; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Hess, 11390 Ohio 177 in Morning Sun; the home of Mrs. Bertha Gilmore, 116 South Barron St., Eaton; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bennett, 204 West Main St., Eaton; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Collins, 29 East Dayton St., West Alexandria, and the Martin house.

Horatio Martin, who was known to most citizens as "Uncle Rash," was a saddle and harness maker by trade. He operated his business from the house that is now the Frantz residence.

According to John E. Ernst, stepfather of James Frantz, who has researched the history of her home, the two-story frame was erected about 1834.

Was Workshop

The house immediately south of the Martin house, known as the Campell house, was built within the next 10 years. Robert Martin, his wife and three children, Horatio, Ann Elizabeth and Sarah, occupied and used the Campbell house as their home and the Martin house was the workshop.

Robert Martin, a common pleas court judge, came to Eaton shortly after the village of Eaton was platted by William Bruce.

In 1842, Ann Martin married John VanAusdal Campbell, and they moved into the Campbell house with the Martin family. They had 11 children, including four daughters with only one getting married. This was Birdie Gertrude who married Edmund S. Dye, a lawyer working with her father. They later built and occupied the home now owned by Dr. C. J. Brian.

After the death of Edmun S. Dye, his widow moved into the Campbell house and the four sisters lived there until their deaths.

The Campbell house became crowded and Robert Martin and his family moved into the Martin house. While all details are sketchy, it is known that Robert Martin owned both the Campbell and Martin houses at his death Feb. 26, 1856. On June 20, 1863, the three children of Robert Martin made an agreement in which Horatio Martin relinquished all his interest in the properties to his sister, Sarah, in consideration of love and affection and to contribute to her comfort.

Ann E. Campbell and her husband, John, and Sarah Martin, then made what they termed "an equal partition and division" between them of the properties owned by Robert Martin.

In this division, Sarah Martin received the place known as Martin house and Anne and her husband, John, received the Campbell house.

The division provided that Ann pay to Sarah the sum of $250 to equalize their respective shares. It was further agreed that the parties each have "the full and undisturbed privilege of using in common, as long as they reside on said premisees, the well, cistern, wood house, cellar, smokehouse, well or wash house and other outbuildings now on the premises, with the right of way to pass and repass thereto."

These outbuildings were a vital part of living in those times.

The Martin House, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Frantz, 125 South Barron St., is painted gray with attractive white and black trim. It is one of six Preble County homes included on a historical tour Sunday, June 25. (Miller Photo)

Another stipulation of the agreement was that neither "shall rent to any person or persons any part or parts of said premises without the consent of the other parties thereto."

And Sarah Martin agreed not to sell her property to any person or persons except to John and Anne Campbell unless they otherwise consented.

It was further agreed that should Sarah decide to sell to John and Ann, three persons would be selected to determine the price if an agreement could not be made.

The agreement supports the story that the two houses were originally one.

Sarah never sold the home and she lived there until she became ill and infirm. She closed the house and moved next door with her nieces where she died on Feb. 8, 1924.

Her brother, Horatio, died came older and eccentric, many young children in Eaton thought of her as a witch.

Sarah was a strong-minded and strong-willed person, and as part of her living maintained vegetable and flower gardens.

In his history, Ernst relates the "legend that Sarah had inherited a beautiful set of Delft China which she never used but displayed and owned with great affection. To assure herself that some persons, less appreciative and worthy, would not get the dishes, she hauled them to the privy and broke and splintered all, confining them to the bowels of said outbuilding."

Years later on more than one occasion, pieces of these dishes were dug from the soil where had once stood the outhouse.

Neither the Martin or Campbell houses are now owned by any descendants of Robert Martin but Mrs. Frantz is fully appreciative of the historical importance of

In 1842, Ann Martin married John VanAusdal Campbell, and they moved into the Campbell house with the Martin family. They had 11 children, including four daughters with only one getting married. This was Birdie Gertrude who married Edmund S. Dye, a lawyer working with her father. They later built and occupied the home now owned by Dr. C. J. Brian.

After the death of Edmun S. Dye, his widow moved into the Campbell house and the four sisters lived there until their deaths.

The Campbell house became crowded and Robert Martin and his family moved into the Martin house. While all details are sketchy, it is known that Robert Martin owned both the Campbell and Martin houses at his death Feb. 26, 1856. On June 20, 1863, the three children of Robert Martin made an agreement in which Horatio Martin relinquished all his interest in the properties to his sister, Sarah, in consideration of love and affection and to contribute to her comfort.

Ann E. Campbell and her husband, John, and Sarah Martin, then made what they termed "an equal partition and division" between them of the properties owned by Robert Martin.

In this division, Sarah Martin received the place known as Martin house and Anne and her husband, John, received the Campbell house.

The division provided that Ann pay to Sarah the sum of $250 to equalize their respective shares. It was further agreed that the parties each have "the full and undisturbed privilege of using in common, as long as they reside on said premisees, the well, cistern, wood house, cellar, smokehouse, well or wash house and other outbuildings now on the premises, with the right of way to pass and repass thereto."

These outbuildings were a vital part of living in those times.

The Martin House, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Frantz, 125 South Barron St., is painted gray with attractive white and black trim. It is one of six Preble County homes included on a historical tour Sunday, June 25. (Miller Photo)

Another stipulation of the agreement was that neither "shall rent to any person or persons any part or parts of said premises without the consent of the other parties thereto."

And Sarah Martin agreed not to sell her property to any person or persons except to John and Anne Campbell unless they otherwise consented.

It was further agreed that should Sarah decide to sell to John and Ann, three persons would be selected to determine the price if an agreement could not be made.

The agreement supports the story that the two houses were originally one.

Sarah never sold the home and she lived there until she became ill and infirm. She closed the house and moved next door with her nieces where she died on Feb. 8, 1924.

Her brother, Horatio, died in 1895 and as Sarah Martin lived on in the house and became older and eccentric, many young children in Eaton thought of her as a witch.

Sarah was a strong-minded and strong-willed person, and as part of her living maintained vegetable and flower gardens.

In his history, Ernst relates the "legend that Sarah had inherited a beautiful set of Delft China which she never used but displayed and owned with great affection. To assure herself that some persons, less appreciative and worthy, would not get the dishes, she hauled them to the privy and broke and splintered all, confining them to the bowels of said outbuilding."

Years later on more than one occasion, pieces of these dishes were dug from the soil where had once stood the outhouse.

Neither the Martin or Campbell houses are now owned by any descendants of Robert Martin but Mrs. Frantz is fully appreciative of the historical importance of her home and will preserve and foster what it represents.

CROP suggests help to support farm cause

CROP suggests that persons in cities show their support for the American Agriculture movement by purchasing wheat to send to the world's hungry.

For the past three weeks, CROP has flooded the state with information about the need for Kansas wheat where there is hunger. The organization wants persons to provide money to buy and ship more Kansas wheat.

Elvin Frantz, Kansas Director of CROP, believes thousands of Kansans who are not farmers do identify with the farm problem but are not sure how best to help. Lives where?

Since more exports are desirable, he suggests city people join the farmer in doing just that and at the same time help people in need. He says each $100 check to CROP will purchase and ship more than 30 bushels of wheat.

CROP wheat definitely will be exported within the next two months, acording to Frantz.

"In fact the largest shipment scheduled for Vietman has already been arranged. The wheat is being held for CROP by several grain firms. The only thing needed is the cash to pay for it. Actual wheat gifts will also be fed into the pipeline for this shipment," he said.

CROP wheat from Kansas is exported and distributed under the auspices of Church World Service and the Mennonite Central Committee. So far in 1977, wheat and flour have gone to India, Brazil, Honduras and Niger. Part of the wheat was bagged by volunteers at a mill in Whitewater, near Wichita.

Future shipments are scheduled not only to Vietnam, but for places like Upper Volta and Brazil. CWS assistance went last week to help India flood victims and more help will be needed soon. In fact, the need around the world is great enough that CWS officials now say they can responsibly use much more wheat and flour in 1978 than was used in 1977.

Dear Miss Frantz --(or is it Mrs?)

Several months ago I placed an ad in the Genealogical Helper for information on a Frantz/France line. The only reply I have received was from Sheila Stover who sent me a card with your address, saying that you have "tons of information on this family all the way back and will check."

I have very little information and even an ounce or two would help me.

My mother was Ruth Whipps, daughter of Fletcher N. Whips.

His parents were Many Ann France and Simon Peter Whipps.

His wife was Mary Ellen Goodin, daughter of Smith Goodin II and Sarah Salisbury.

Because of the early deaths of both my grandfather's parents, and of my grandmother's mother, I have had many unsolved questions.

I made two trips back to Perry and Morrow counties in Ohio to search for records, and to Blackford and Wells counties, in Indiana. I found everyone most helpful. I located the Whipstown cemetery in Perry county, and the Unity Presbyterian cemetery where Smith II's parents Asa and Margaret (Sellars) Goodin were buried.

In M orrow county I found the stone for Smith Goodin's first wife, Sarah Salisbury, with her parents nearby.

In Wells county, I found Goodin burials.

But I have found nothing for the Frantz or France family, which would indicate who the parents are, where they came from (except PA), or where Mary Ann and Simon Peter lived when she died. S.P. left for California and the gold rush after her death, wrote that he had found gold, and was returning home. But he failed to return.

The next page lists what I know of our France family. In the marriage license records in Perry county, Mary Ann was shown as France. John's was Frantz.

I shall appreciate any help you can give me, and will gladly pay for copies of material and time, if you can help.

Sincerely,

Miriam L. Dexter

Dear Rosemary:

Thanks so much for answering my letter -- and the suggestions you gave me. I especially enjoyed your comments about the "jackrabbits trying to find shade under a tumble weed."

I've been trying to recheck everything I have to give you accurate dates -- but much of what I've been using to find facts have been from memories of my mother -- and her relationship with others -- who have also collected memories!

Ex: A descendant of Reuban and Sarah Jane France Butler remembers seeing pictures of her grandmother's home in Kentucky -- that she had inherited shares of coal mines. . . . But Mary Ann France Whips died young -- and I'm sure her children inherited nothing.

Your suggestion about checking churches made me think of something else. I had been curious if all the France/Frantz families had come from Germany. I checked English records -- and found at least 10 families with crests using the FRANCE form. . . Then on Monday I spent some time at the Mormon library here in town. . On the microfiche cards I checked the WHIPS family in Maryland -- and found the births I copied on the back of the chart. They agreed with a Bible record I have. . . Then I checked for France names -- and found these also in the St. Pauls Episcopal church. . . The FRANTZ forms were for Lutheran churches.

The Whips family were Methodists in Ohio --although Simon Peter's wife was a Presbyterian. And apparently the one son of E. and M. France was buried in a Methodist cemetery in Perry county.

I have been unable to find where Simon Peter Whips and Mary Ann France and their two children born in Ohio were in the 1850 census. They had sold their land in Ohio, Perry County in 1849.. I think they were perhaps in Blackford county, IN -- but I have been unable to find records there for burial of Mary Ann.

On reading I'm sure that's a non-fact statement!!

As I checked marriages the only one of the family to have used the Frantz was Mary Ann's brother John. His marriage record was with that spelling -- and he used that spelling in Nebraska.

Now for the GOODINS who are giving you trouble. I do have quite a bit of information on the descendants of Moses Goodin and Jane Hall. He was a Quaker (1- over at the time of the Rev. War -- and his grandson wrote an autobiography which I have. We have contacted descendants of several lines of descendants. We are not certain of his birthplace -- N.J., R.I., MA?? -- but his wife was born in New Jersey. They lived in PA, then in Perry Co., OH, Morrow Co. OH, and Wells Co., IN. (and descendants) I have a copy of the will of Moses and of two of his sons -- Asa and Moses Jr. . . . . So, if I can help you more on those names, let me know.

I'm returning your form (kept a copy) -- and a new one that I made out, better organized, maybe, than information I first sent.

Since I am able to use the Mormon library here in town, I would be glad to check information for you. We are developing a good Riley County Genealogical Society library here too. Thanks for your letter -- and any suggestions you have.

Sincerely, Miriam

volunteers in August, 1861. He was a gallant young soldier, and faced the enemy at the battles at Fort Donelson, Fort Henry and Pittsburg Landing. He was wounded five times in the last named battle, and was taken to the hospital at Savannah, and from there to Marietta, Ohio, and thence to St. Louis, where he received his discharge November 1, 1863. After he had sufficiently recovered from the effects of his wounds he spent two years in school at Prairie City, Ill. He then engaged in the marble business for four years, during which he had remarkable success. In 1869 he located at West Liberty, Iowa, and engaged in raising Osage orange for hedges. He planted and cultivated the first nursery in the state. After successfully prosecuting this business for four years he retired, and engaged in farming for several years. He conducted a hotel at Tipton, Iowa, for three years, and in the spring of 1885 he came to Buffalo county, Nebr., and took a soldier's claim in the Wild Horse valley. He moved to Armada, Nebr., in the fall of 1888, and erected a hotel, which he is now conducting with splendid success.

He was married, March 18, 1869, to Sarah Dickerson, of West Liberty, Iowa. They had four children—Linie L., Annie, Willie and Clara. She was born in Ohio and died in 1878.

He was next married, May 7, 1882, to Mary A. Linn. She was born in Iowa May 7, 1853. Her father was born in Tennessee and her mother in South Carolina. Her grandparents on both sides were large slave owners, and had large plantations in the South.

Mr. Smith is a member of the Masons, Odd Fellows and of the G. A. R.

BRINTON F. HARBAUGH was born in Hamilton county, Ind., March 28, 1854, and is the son of Samuel and Amelia (Seaman) Harbaugh. His father was born in Kentucky in 1808, but was reared in Ohio. In 1833 he moved to Indiana and in 1875 came to Nebraska. He was a wagon-maker by trade and was a soldier in the Black Hawk war. He has several times been elected justice of the peace and is a respected member of the Christian church.

B. F. Harbaugh learned the wagon-maker's trade with his father, while a resident of Indiana. Being an industrious young man he concluded to accept the advice of that revered journalist, Horace Greeley, and go West. The spring of 1873 found him in Kearney, then a mere hamlet on the frontier. He followed the Wood river as far west as the present village of Armada, where he filed a soldier's declaratory claim to a quarter section for his brother and held it down for six months, when he purchased it for himself. He built a sod house and survived the grasshopper raid, but witnessed great suffering among settlers in those dark days. There were few ways of earning money then and many had to resort to hunting and trapping to gain a livelihood.

In 1885 he moved to Armada and engaged in the implement business, which he continued for about three years. Mr. Harbaugh is now justice of the peace for Armada township, and has held various other local offices. He is a young man of excellent habits and of exceptional ability, and has a bright future before him. He manifests a deep interest in the rapid development of Armada and the surrounding country, and is confident that at no distant day the success of the town will be assured. He was married November 1, 1882, to Miss Judy Burt. They have two children—Georgie, born August 17, 1883, and Annie, born November 21, 1884. Mrs. Harbaugh was born June 15, 1861, and is the daughter of Arthur F. and Elizabeth (Campbell) Burt.

JAMES M. FRANTZ was born at New Lexington, Perry county, Ohio, February 21, 1835, and is the son of William and Nancy (Rush) Frantz. His father was born in Somerset county, Pa., April 8, 1808. At the age of twenty he moved to Perry county, Ohio, where he met and married Miss Nancy Rush three years later. William Frantz was a farmer by occupation and lived in Perry county until 1867, when he removed to Warren county, Ill., where he died in 1867. His wife died in 1875.

The paternal grandfather of the subject of this sketch was John Frantz, who was a Pennsylvanian by birth, and Samuel Rush, the maternal grandparent, was a native of Pennsylvania, and a captain in the war of 1812.

James M. Frantz was the eldest of a family of nine children, and at twenty-one went to Warren county, Ill., where he followed agricultural pursuits for a few years. He also spent several years in various mercantile pursuits. In 1873, he emigrated to Kearney, Nebr., and engaged in the drug business. The present lively young city of Kearney was then a mere frontier hamlet with only two or three hundred inhabitants. During the terrible blizzard on April 8, 1873, Mr. Frantz was there keeping a drug store and living in the upper story. The storm raged so fiercely that he did not come down stairs to open his store for three days. There were several car loads of cattle and hogs snow bound on the side tracks that actually perished. After the storm had passed over, the cars were emptied, and the dead stock hauled some distance south of town, where a good portion was consumed by a band of Pawnee Indians. During Mr. Frantz's residence in Kearney, he purchased and shipped fifty car loads of buffalo bones. A great many settlers, for want of other employment, would gather buffalo bones from the prairie and market them to get money to supply themselves with the necessaries of life. He witnessed the trouble with the drunken cowboys in Kearney, in 1874, and saw two of them shot on their horses by village officials.

James M. Frantz was married, January 31, 1861, to Miss Mary A. Campbell. The five children born of this union are named Canzada, Mina, Areta, Harry and Charlie.

Mrs. Frantz was born in Fayette county, Pa., June 28, 1842, and is the daughter of James M. and Jane N. (Smiler) Campbell, both of whom were natives of Pennsylvania. They emigrated to Illinois in 1853, and engaged in agricultural pursuits. Her mother died in 1875 and her father in 1889. Mr. Frantz is now in the drug business in the flourishing little town of Armada, Nebr., and is meeting with splendid success. He is a prominent member of the masonic fraternity, and both he and his estimable wife belong to the Christian church.

Dear Rosemary: 21 D[illegible] 1971

I try from the records I have collected in my home Library (genealogy on the Mia-Valley) to find something that I think would be pertinent to the members of the Society - Out of State mostly and who cannot run here to check out their ancestors. I would say that it took about hour to feret out and write down the enclosed information - which you may or may not have - Should you find it aids you in your research, I let your concierge be your guide. I usually charge $3.00 per hour for research but for members I think $2.00 would cover the information, time, postage & Envelope. - But as I say, if you already have it - consider it for free as there is no point in giving you information you already have.

Sincerely Bob Kennedy

P.S. Have located Frantz family farm - I plan to visit it and others soon in 1840 he purchased and moved to a farm one-half mile wast of Acme on north side of rad, on what is now the Samuel Boyer farm where he married 2nd X and spent the remainder of his life. On this farm he grew all kinds of orchard fruits.

The entire Cripe family were German Bpa Baptists and spike the Pennsyvania Dutch. John Miller an old resident who recently died at age 96 remembered Mr. Cripe as a large raw-boned man, positive and decided in speech and action.

Miss Evelyn Rosemary Frantz,
7225 New Castle Road,
Lafayette, Ind. 47905.

Dear Miss Frantz:

Thank you for your letter and interest in the Frantz clan. My mother's mother was Mary Frantz before she married my grandfather, Isacc C. Cripe of North Manchester, Ind. Grandfather Cripe bought out the other heirs to the Frantz farm and built the three story brick home there in 1876. You see it on the north side of Hwy 114 a mile and a half west of North Manchester. Early Frantz's were burried in the Cripe cemetery there on the north side of the road. Other Frantz's are in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery at the West Manchester Church of the Brethern, a mile west of N. Manchester.

I have a few copies available, of "Our Ancestors" which has the genealogy and much else of interest about the Frantz's. It was published by our library so that they and the Newberry Library of Chicago could have copies. These two libraries and the Mormon Library and the Library of Congress, are said to be the four greatest on genealogy in America. You should visit it. I can send you a copy if you wish, price $5.00.

Mr. Lester H. Binnie, Rt. 4, Albion, Ind. 46701 has written the book "Early Brethern Families in the Eel River Congregation in Kosciusco & Wabash counties, Ind. He sells them for $15.00 per copy. It has many references to Frantz, some copied from "Our Ancestors", others from grave stones etc. He did a laborious and good work. A useful book.

I just recently heard of the "Fellowship of Brethern Genealogists" membership fee I believe is $4.00 Add: Elizabeth Weigle, 318 Perry St., Elgin, Ill. 60120.

I wish you success in your very worthwhile efforts.

Sincerely,
E. W. Ranck

David Sr. Was not only a farmer but mechanically inclined, being both a good carpenter and blacksmith He wrote a good hand in both English and German. he built a dam across the creek and operated a saw mill by water opwer, the saw working up and down through the log. It was operated and cut much of the lumber used in the neighborhood, for many years. soon after his death the machinery was sold and e frame building and dam soon went to ruin. He was a sturdy pioneer, industrious, and frugal of same faith as the Cripes and made a valuable contribution to the communityl He died of Pneumonia in 1855 when the writer, his youngest son was but two weeks old. His widow lived until 1894 . Remains of both lie in the little cemetery one-fourth mile east of Ame.

"e cleared the farm of timber, erected first a log house and later a frame dwelling together with necessary barns and othe buildings. Farming and threshing of grain, through many years of labor, enabled him to acquire some wight hundred acres of land in the vicinity of North manchester. Almost immediately after coming to Indian he began as a thresher of grain and continued almost as long as he lived, or for sixty years, which earned for him the title of 'Veteran Thresher of Indian', His first threshing outfit was chaff-piler fun by horse power, but as improvements in machinery came he adopted them, thus was almost up-to-date. e was a very active man and kept direct management of five hundred acres of farm land, even to the day of his d eath , at age of 88.

"I lived the out-of=door life and was scarcely ever sick 'e was as alert in mind, as in body, thought for himself and acted on his own judgment which was generall right. "e was positive, honest and cordial and had the highest respect of all who knwe him. his threshing dress may be charactized by saying tha he wore his waist-coat with lower corners tied together in a know to prevent getting caught in the machinery, a red bandana about his knek and bare-footed. "e took great pride in driving a fine four-horse team hitched to the old Pennslvania wagon stacked high with grain for the market. He and wife were members of the Church of the Brethren and at death were laid to rest in Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

opied from "istory of Wabash County

was educated in the pioneer public schools of Mongomery o,Ohio "there grew to manhood as a farmer's son and engaged in agricultural pursuits e was married in his native county to Miss Chrisina Heeter 'da of "enry Heeter of that county and one year after their unio they packed their household effects in an old fashioned "prairie schooner", draen by four horses, and made the difficult and tedious trip overland to the frontier of Indiana.

"hey were accompanied by the parents of r. lery, who subsequently located on a farm in kosciosco county, Indian, and there passed away upon coming to Wabash county r. lery took up 320 acres of Land in Pleasoant twp. all located in woods so dense that he was compelled to clear a space before he could build the little log cabin that xerved as the first family home. ater, as the years passsed, this was replace by a more pretentious residence, and "r. lery has gradulally seen the primitive homes of the cunty disappear, one by one until today there is hardly to be found an exaple of that mode of life. His experiences were much the same a sthose which fell to the lot of the usual pioneer, his life being filled to the limit with the labors incidental to the transforming fo a forest into a productive farm, but his he has accoplished through hard and unceasing toil, until today he hhas one of the valuabel and hightly-cultivated tarcts of this part of the county. located on the farm just north across the road from the Rose Hill Brick church, Here he cleared the Land, erected buildings, and reared his family as a pioneer farmer. He was not only a farmer but a leader of the Church and delivered his sermons in German, often followed by Rev. Jacob Funderburg, repeating the same in substance, for the English hearers.

In about 1881 when the church divided he cast his lot with the old Brethren and when he died at a ripe old age was buried in the cemetery at the old Brethren Church. His family is now represented by the off-spring of his two sons.
