

Valuable Frantz + Zug.

This is a
"cover sheet"
for following.

Dear Mr. Francis:

Several years ago we exchanged several letters about my ancestors, the Zugs and the Frantzes. Now I have some more questions about them that I trust you can answer.

The inscription on the monument to the immigrant Ulric Zug includes the statement that he "fled from the Canton Zug in Switzerland" because of religious persecution. Your letter states that his grandfather Hans had gone to the Heidelberg area after his release from prison and had a large family there. The Mennonite Encyclopedia (3:1039) says that he had lived in Signau, Berne. It seems highly improbable that Ulric should have gone back to another Canton in Switzerland and then fled.

My husband and I spent several days in Zug in the summer of 1958, and when we tried to find Zug family records there we were told not only that there were none, but also that Zug was not a family name, and neither were any of its variations. So I question the statement on the monument. Do you know of any documentary authority for it?

Recent bits of information have caused me to have more serious doubts about my reputed Frantz lineage. I am supposed to be a descendant of Ulric's daughter Magdalena and her husband, Michael² Frantz (Michael¹).

Now I am beginning to wonder if it was not Michael² (Christian¹) whom Magdalena married. He was six years old when he came to Berks county with his father, so was the approximate age of the Michael who went to Botetourt county, Virginia, where it is known that other descendants of Christian¹ settled.

I have not seen any convincing evidence that Michael¹ had a son Michael. Brumbaugh says that the Michael baptized in 1748 was "evidently" a son of the elder, but I consider that assuming too much. The Christian Frantz family was in the Conestoga district, and his three sons John, Michael, and Christian² were in Little Swatara in 1770, along with Nicholas Gerst and wife, whose daughter Anna married Daniel³ Frantz (Michael², 1) July 25, 1784. Circumstantial evidence thus points to Michael² (Christian¹) as husband of Magdalena Zug and father of my Daniel (if they were both the same).

If you have any proof of the parentage of Magdalena Zug's husband I would surely appreciate knowing what it is. So far as I can see, it is only Brumbaugh's guess.

And if you should know anything of Michael² (Christian¹) or of anyone descended from Christian¹ who is versed in Frantz history I would be glad to have his address.

I grew up being told that I descended from Michael¹, but I have discovered too many family traditions that are incorrect to accept this one without better evidence than seems to exist. Apparently he left no Bible record, or there would be dates and names of more children, which, judging from early Frantz names in Cocalico, there must have been.

Sincerely yours,

Laura M. Clarenbach

Dear Mrs. Clarenbach:

I have not been able to reply to your letter of last Spring before this and I hope that you will forgive me for not having done so. I have gone over my grandfather's records pretty carefully and I am unable to give definite answers to any of your questions and it is doubtful that I can even shed any light on the questionable areas.

My grandfather had a copy of the Hertzler Genealogy written by John Hertzler Sr. and published by the Mennonite Publishing Company, Elkhart, Indiana in 1885. A footnote on page 329 of this genealogy states that Ulric Zug fled from Canton Zug. My grandfather had corresponded with the author of the Hertzler Genealogy and apparently received much of his information about the collateral lines of Zugs from him. Some of their information may have had a common source because I notice that the quotation in German in the footnote on page 1 of the enclosure is included in a longer English translation on page 277 of the Hertzler genealogy. As to the possibility or probability of Ulric's living in the Canton Zug, I am not competent to comment. I suppose the name of the Canton might have suggested that the family had lived there. What reasons, if any, might have caused a return to Switzerland and whether religious toleration had improved or worsened after Hans Zaug's release in 1671, I don't know.

It is probable that most of the family's early records, except those documented in Family Bibles, were handed down verbally from parents to children. You may be interested in the following quotation from a letter written to my grandfather by John Hertzler in 1880 when Hertzler was 58 years old: "I will here refer you to Martyr's Mirror page 1021 and page 1023 of the same book with extract from the same obersueltzen (?) Jan 5th A. D. 1672. You will find there a man who was a minister in the North who had a family of 12 children, said to be our progenitor Zeug and was told by Moritz A. Zug and Christian Zug to their children and down in their generation to this time. I will now say to you what my mother said in regard of Ulrich and Peter Zug. She told me they was cousins of Moritz A. Zug and Christian Zug and Johannes Zug my progenitor of my mother or my great grandfather Zug who came to this country in 1742 and I believe she had reason to say so for her father and grandfather lived on one farm and heard her father talk about it by times it is reasonable to think so in the family and as his house was the place of many of the German and Swiss Mennonites who resorted to him for council and information where to locate and to make their homes after they arrived in this country and great grandfather Christian Zug visited Europe his native home some time before the Revolutionary war and brought some of his friends with him back to America with him my mother said. And my mother spoke often to me about the Zug genealogy and their friends coming to visit them and stopping with them in early days when they hauled their produce of the farm on Conestoga wagons to Philadelphia market and I had a long talk with my mother in 1851 about the Zug family and she told me that Ulrich and Peter came to this country some years before her grandfather and that they visited each other by time I will say to you what my uncle Jacob Zug said at one time in talking of the Zug genealogy. He was of the opinion he said that Ulrich Zug and Peter Zug were uncles of Moritz A. and Christian Zug and Johannes Zug. But as he was some 10 years younger than Mother I think she was correct for Mother was about 10 years old at the time her grandfather died. I will now close on this fearing that you may not realize an interest in the above and might weary your patience, but give it only such credit as you think proper"

In regard to the family name of Zug, I'm going to refer you to Mr. Richard C. Miller, 4353 Burnham Ave. Toledo, 12, Ohio who has had some correspondence with authorities in Germany and Switzerland. His letters show, I think, that there can be no doubt about Zug being a family name and I'm sure he will be glad to share his information. Mr. Miller is a descendent of Christian, son of Ulric.

Now, as to Michael Frantz. I suggest that you write to Mr. Reuben King, 7th and Chestnut St. Lebanon, Pa. He is, I think, president of the Frantz Reunion and may have records which would answer your questions. In addition to the footnote on page 73 of the enclosure, I find the following in my grandfather's records: "The ship Samuel of London who arrived at Philadelphia, Pa. August 11, 1732 had on board among others, Christian Frantz, Sr., Christian Frantz, Jr., Johannes and Michael Frantz, the two last were under the age of 16 years. From I Daniel Rupp's History. Now it is quite presumably that Christian Frantz Sr. was the father of Christian Jr. And it is also no doubt but that the said Christian Frantz Jr. was the grandfather of Matthias Frantz (my wife's grandfather)." I have no comment on these assumptions but wish to point out only that there was a young Michael on board ship with Christian and might have been the son of Christian. If you have any records which would confirm or refute these assumptions, I would appreciate being informed. Of my Frantz ancestors, my grandfather's records are meager. He says that "Matthias Frantz, August 2, 1769 to November 19, 1829, was the grandfather of the writer's wife. Matthias Frantz was the son of Christian Frantz (if his name was yet properly known) who with his whole family (some six in number) except Matthias emigrated to Virginia. Matthias' grandfather, the ancestor, Christian Frantz immigrated to America and obtained a deed in the year 1760 for a large tract of land, most of it has nearly all the time since been owned and occupied by his descendants."

In the History of Lancaster County by Ellis and Evans I find on page 341, in an article on the Conestoga Dunker Church that "Michael Frantz, a minister, was elected successor of Bishop Mack in 1736 and served until 1747 when he removed to Virginia and organized a church in that state." Since Michael the elder died in 1848 in Lancaster County according to Brumbaugh as well as my grandfather's records, the authors of the Lancaster County History were apparently confused about the identity of this Michael. It might tend to confirm, however, that the Michael who went to Virginia was from the Conestoga congregation.

Among some fragmentary records which my grandfather noted is a list of 'Members who joined the church under the Eldership of Michael Frantz of Lancaster County'. I wish that he had shown his source. It may have been taken from church records or perhaps copied from an article in a church paper. He says "Elder Michael Frantz was ordained in 1735. In this original group of Conestoga members were at this time  John Frantz . Michael Frantz, above named was born in the Canton of St. Jacob near Basle in Switzerland in the year 1687, came to America Sept. 30, 1727 and settled in the vicinity of the Cocalico, Lancaster County, Pa. His son, Michael Jr. came over with him when but 2 years old, who was later married to Magdalena Zug." "Michael Pfautz was baptized in 1739, was elected to the ministry in 1744, ordained by Michael Frantz to the Elder Sept. 25, 1748. This was only a few weeks before Eld. Frantz' death." The list then shows that Michael Frantz was baptized on April 24, 1748 and Magdalena Zug on June 12, 1748.

In 1916 my father read a paper to the Lebanon County Historical Society which was printed in the form of a brochure entitled 'The Church of the Brethren (Dunkers) in Lebanon County'. Concerning the Little Swatara Congregation which is located in northwestern Berks and northeastern Lebanon Counties, this article states: "In 1750 Eld. George Klein, ancestor of the late Dr. W. F. Klein of Lebanon, moved to Northkill, Berks County and labored in the Little Swatara region. Soon after, near the present town of Millersburg, he baptized George Beasher(Bashore), Michael Frantz, Peter Heckman, John Frantz and others." He then stated that by 1770 the membership had grown to 45 baptized members and listed them including the four named in your letter. In their cases he added " and wife" after each name. Later on, "August 12, 1780, Michael Frantz, mentioned in the list, was ordained an elder . Eld. Michael Frantz, doubtless cared for the church till the ordination of Eld. Hans Jacob Beasher."

Perhaps this only adds confusion, but if these baptismal records are correct, it would establish the existence of two Michaels, one in Conestoga and the other in Little Swatara. It would still not establish the identity of Magdalena's husband. Ulric Zug lived in the Conestoga area, but that can not be considered conclusive. The Little Swatara region is probably not more than about 30 miles distant and no doubt the Brethren families in different regions did become acquainted. I have not found any record of the date that Magdalena moved to Virginia. Do you have any information? However, if the one Michael was still in Little Swatara in 1780, would this not rule him out? I am certain that my father had documentary evidence whenever he mentioned dates; he was, though, making an assumption, apparently, about Michael's presence in Little Swatara after 1780.

I've been spending some time in two-fingered typing of the Zug records in order to insure that they won't be lost or destroyed. I'm enclosing a copy of those which pertain to Magdalena's descendants. I would appreciate any corrections which you could furnish and if you would care to have the records of the rest of the family, you are welcome. While the records of Magdalena are very incomplete, much to my grandfather's regret, they may possibly furnish some clue as to other sources of information. I certainly hope that they will be of some value. After you are through with this copy I would appreciate if you would forward it to Mrs. Harold Walters, R. D. 1, New Ross, Ind., asking her to return it to me when she has finished with it. She is also a descendent of Magdalena and may have some information which would be of value to you.

In addition to the reference to the Gospel Visitor in the footnote on page 73 of the enclosure, I also found another which apparently had to do with Michael Frantz. This reference was to Volume 3, number 1 of 1855, pages 4 and 5.

Again, please forgive me for this belated reply.

Sincerely yours

Ulic Zug's Genealogy,
Reproduced in an Epitomized (abridged) form, known as the 9th Volume.

Memo: I (Lorraine Frantz Edwards) believe this is the hand writing of J. G. Francis or even Michael Zug in a very old, very fragile ledger in the J. G. Francis collection @ Bridgewater, VA, Alexander Mack Library.

More specifically, the collection of Willard J. Francis, son of J. G. & grandson of Michael Zug.

Copied 7/19/2000

Ulic Fug, the Ancestor of this sketch, was a native of the Canton of Fug, Switzerland. From where he fled in consequence of Religious persecution, ^{as he was} and emigrated to America in the ship James Goodwill together with Peter, Henry & George Fug (cousins of him) arriving at Philadelphia Sept. 27, 1727. He settled one mile north of what is now known as Unionville, near White Oak Station, Lancaster Co. Pa. He died in 1758 or '59. (See Vol. 1st P. 11.)

He was married to a Miss Bachman, (See P. 13-15, Vol. 1) and had raised a family of six sons & two daughters, viz:

¶ In this order they have all joined in a deed to their brother Jacob Fug, who is however presumed by the writer from good authority to have been the oldest of the family. (See Vol. 1st P. 30 & 31.)

X Ulic Fug was by persuasion a Mennonite, but joined the Brethren (Dunkard) church by Baptism in 1742.

His Family Bible, printed in Basle, Switzerland in 1712, is yet in good preservation and in the family of the late Andrew A. Fug, near Lime Rock, Lancaster Co.

7 Peter Bug (P.1.) when born & died was not to be obtained, and it is presumed that he remained unmarried. He was baptized in 1749 under the eldership of Michael Trantz of the Conestoga church in Lancaster Co. Pa. From whence he went to near the Potomac river Md. This is about the history I have of him. (See P. 17. Vol. 1st)

7. Johanna (John) Bug, My G-Grandfather on P.1. was m^d to Anna Hefflinger born in the year 1729 in Switzerland from whence she emigrated at the age of about 8 years together with her mother who died on Ocean while coming to America. She died Oct. 25, 1816, at the home of her son Eld. Abraham Bug, (where they lived but a few years) and is buried at the Rogers Burying Ground one mile west of Richland, Lebanon Co. Then after her death, he returned again to his home and lived with his son Joseph, one mile north the White Oak Church Lancaster Co. where he died at the ripe age of 89y, 8mo. & 21 days. He was baptized in the year of 1749 at the age of 18 years, and was elected to the Ministry about the year 1772, ordained in 1780 and had the overseer of the White Oak church. He preached for almost 50 years. for more of him see P. 18-22. Vol. 1. He had raised a family of 4 sons & 6 daughters.

II Christiansa Zug, page 2, a sister to the writer's great grandfather, was married to John Musselman¹. They lived and died two miles north of Manheim, Lancaster County. Very little is known any more of their descendants. They were Mennonites by persuasion. They had children but how many is not known. Only the name of one son was obtained as late as May 1890. (Likely they had only this one son):

III Jacob Musselman, who was born March 15, 1762 and died about the year 1825 near Manheim, was married to Mary Witmer who was born June 26, 1760, died in 1834. They were members of the Mennonite Church. They had four sons and three daughters:

They were second cousins to the writer's father. All passed away.

IV Jacob Musselman, above, was married to Susan Zentrays who died July 1, 1864, aged about 66 years. He lived and died in Berks County. He had six children: V Sharrett Musselman, born 1816, married ---- Gottshawl; V Abraham, born 1814, died 1886; V Isaac, page 52, born April 2, 1821; V Jacob, born 1822; V Eliza, born 1824; V John, born 1826, married ---- Smith. This family were all members of the Reformed Church and third cousins to the writer.

V Isaac Musselman, above, was married to ---- who was born February 6, 1814, died June 28, 1888, aged 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ years, 4 months and 22 days. He lived near Farmersville, Montgomery County, Ohio. I am indebted to him for his father's family, (strange he forgot to say to whom he was married) He has but one son living: V John Musselman who is married to Sarah Wolf and lives with his father. One son died young.

IV Abraham Musselman, page 52, was married to Maria Hackman, born ----, died November 1827. He lived and died near Manheim. He was a member of the Mennonite Church. Children are:

Note: Michael Zug information

Jay G. Francis.

II Magdalene Zug, page 2, was a sister to the writer's great grandfather. She was born ----- and was married to Michael Frantz Jr. who was born in Germany about the year 1728 and immigrated to America with his father¹ at the age of about two years. Some time after their marriage (time not known) they moved from Lancaster County to Botetourt County, Va., where they settled down. When she died was not to be had. Her husband, Michael Frantz, died about the year 1810, aged about 82 years. She was the mother of eight sons and one daughter:

The daughter's name is not known but she was married to a Mr. Garst.

These names may not be in the proper rotation, but in this order they were obtained from Elder Aaron Frantz of Dialton, Clark County, Ohio. (See page 75.) He was a grandson of III Christian Frantz. Magdalena's genealogy is numerous, but the writer failed to obtain the half of them.

III Christian Frantz, above, a cousin to the writer's grandfather, was born about the year 1766 and was married to Mary Garst who was born -----. He moved from Botetourt County, Va. (time not known) to Clark County, Ohio. He was an elder of the German Baptist Brethren Church and had charge of the Donnels Creek Church in said county, where he died March 6, 1850, aged about 84 years. His wife, Mary, died August 8, 1838, aged ----. He had two sons and seven daughters:

¹ His father, Michael Frantz Sr., was baptized September 29, 1734, together with 19 others by the German Baptist Brethren Church in Lancaster County, Pa. He became the first minister and elder of the Conestoga and White Oak Church of Lancaster County. He died in said county in the year of 1748. (From the Gospel Visitor, volume 5, no. 3, page 53, under the heading of "The very Ancient Church of the Brethren in Lancaster County, Pa.") The said Michael Frantz Sr. arrived at Philadelphia either September 30, 1727 (only 3 days after Ulric Zug) with the Ship, Molley, John Hodgeson, Master, from Rotterdam or August 11, 1732 with the Ship Samuel of London. The latter ship had also a Johannes Frantz on board. The writer's informant, Elder Aaron Frantz, was of the opinion that he came to America in 1730. But as the two said ships were the only ships recorded in I. Daniel Rupp's history of immigrants that had Frantz' aboard is conclusive evidence that he arrived either in one or the other. After Elder Aaron Frantz had been informed of this fact, then he upon due meditation concluded that the said Michael Frantz Jr. was born about 1725 instead of 1728 as shown above and came over in 1727 with the Ship Molley.

(See Royer History, page 361)

He had a family of six children: V John Frantz, V Andrew Frantz, V David Frantz, V Lydia Frantz, V Mary Frantz and V Anna Frantz.

IV Mary Frantz, page 74, was born January 23, 1793 and died at the residence of her son in law in Bachelor's Run Church in Carroll County, Indiana on Tuesday, November 2, 1875, aged 82 years, 9 months and 9 days. She was married to John Brubaker who died in Preble County, Ohio in 1848. She was the mother of nine children and a member of the Brethren Church over sixty years. Three of her sons are deacons in the church.

III Daniel Frantz, page 73, son of Michael and Magdalena Zug Frantz was raised in Botetourt County, Va., whence he moved about the year 1813 to near Springfield, Ohio (Clark County). There he lived and died, when is not known. He was married twice; first to Anna Girst, born ----, died in Clark County, Ohio. This family and the writer are third cousins. This is not as desired.

V Abraham Frantz, above, died in North Manchester Church, Indiana. His wife and several children survived him.

V Jacob Frantz, above, was married to ----. He lives in Dayton, Ohio where the writer had met him in the meeting on Sunday, June 3, 1903. He was once a minister of the Brethren Church. I wrote to him for certain information but no reply. However, later (November 23, 1903) the said letter was answered by his brother, Benjamin C. Frantz, (see no. 370) which was however not very definite as may be seen.

V Benjamin C. Frantz, above, resides at New Carlisle, Ohio. He was married twice; first to Mary Ann Leedy, daughter of John and Elizabeth Leedy. She was born in Wabash County, Indiana September 6, 1838 and died in Clark County, Ohio August 9, 1896 and left to survive nine children. He was twice married; first to Sarah Heck in 1840 who died many years ago. He married as his second wife Elizabeth Henricks who survived him. He had ten children, all born with his first wife:

¹ The information of David Frantz so far was obtained from his grandson, V Jacob L. Frantz of Bellefontain, Ohio, the son of IV Abraham Frantz, born September 9, 1822, above. It may be noticed that Abraham Frantz' family are not given; nor any of the others except Michael and Samuel.

Mathias Frantz' Family

Mathias Frantz was the son of Christian Frantz (if his name was yet properly known) who with his whole family, some six in number, except Mathias emigrated to Virginia. Mathias' grandfather, the ancestor, I Christian Frantz, immigrated to America and obtained a deed in the year of 1760 for a large tract of land; most of it has nearly all the time ever since been owned and occupied by his descendants. III Mathias Frantz, the grandfather of the writer's wife, was married to Elizabeth Boeshore, who was a daughter of John Jacob¹ and Christine Alderfer² Boeshore. He was a minister of the German Baptist church. He lived in Bethel Township, Berks County and had a family of nine children, page 139.

III Mathias Frantz' family:

IV Lydia's husband, Elder Jacob Wengert, was born March 10, 1801, died January 6, 1831. He was the son of Christian (son of John) who was born December 28, 1756, died July 28, 1756 (this year is of course erroneous - wzf). His wife Maria, a born Weaver, was born July 1, 1756, died December 5, 1839. Their remains rest in the Wengert Graveyard at Jonestown, when and where this was copied August 10, 1908.

¹John Jacob was a son of John George Boeshore, the ancestor who immigrated to America prior to 1738 and settled a few miles northwest of Millersburg, now Bethel, Berks County, Pa. See page 139.

²Christine's sister, Elizabeth Alderfer, born December 15, 1743, died April 15, 1828, was married to George Kline Jr. who was born December 17, 1740, died August 19, 1795 in Rockingham County, Va. See page 218.

³Catharine Kline was a daughter of Elder Benjamin Kline, born July 12, 1791, died September 11, 1868. See page 219.

The following record was written by my mother, VI Mary F. Zug Francis, apparently in 1937.

Frantz Record

The Ship Samuel London arrived in Philadelphia, August 11, 1732, having on board among others Christian Frantz Sr., Christian Frantz Jr. Johannes and Michael Frantz, the last two under the age of sixteen years.

In the year 1760 Christian Sr. obtained a deed for a large tract of land most of which has been owned and occupied by his descendants (1895 Christian Jr. and all his children - thought to be six - except Matthias or Mathew as his name is spelled on his tombstone was born August 2, 1769, died on Thursday November 19, 1829, aged 60 years, 3 months, 17 days. He was married to Elizabeth Boesshore, born July 31, 1772, died July 2, 1852, aged 79 years, 11 months and 2 days. (Here follows a list of their children as shown on page 138 except that the name of the first child is given as Christiana and an additional child is listed: IV Elizabeth, born October 27, 1798, died April 23, 1810.)

Matthias Frantz was a potter by trade and lived a mile and a half west of Rehresburg, Berks County. His son, Henry, occupied the house in 1886.

IV Jacob Frantz, fifth child of Matthias was married on Thursday, September 29, 1831 to Veronica Geib, born April 18, 1815, died September 12, 1882. He was a farmer and lived near Rehresburg, Berks County, members of German Baptist Church, now 1937 known as Brethren. (Here follow the children as given on page 123).

IV Christiana married in 1823 George Heraff, in 1840 John Kinsel.

IV Henry married Catharine Klein, born January 13, 1813, died November 7, 1886.

IV Anna Mariah (listed on page 133 as Mariah) married Johann Schaffner; born August 15, 1808, died February 27, 1847.

Page 122 shows Veronica's birthdate as April 19, 1806. This would seem to be the more likely date. There is also difference of one day in the date of death. wf

Dear Richard Miller: Your letter also your letter of November 26 is on my desk.

It is very difficult to get records of the Mennonite families in our area because they had more church books.

It is known, that the Zug family lived in the Heidelberg area. You know, that all the Mennonites in the Palatinate area came from Switzerland except few families.

It is said, that the Zug family had the origin in the Canton Bern, Swiss.

The mentioned Moritz Zug, who arrived

September 24, 1742 (almost illegible) was son of Johannes Zug. Moritz Zug died in West Whiteland * on the turnpike Pittsburgh - Philadelphia. This is written * in the book of Grant M. Stolzfus "History

Dear Mr. Miller:

In answer to your letter of Nov. 26, 1959, I am glad to tell you that I am able to give you some information; however not as much as you probably would like to get.

The Hans Zaugg case is rather familiar to me; also the list of the imprisoned Mennonite elders and preachers of 1659, which were "expelled" in 1660. This list is given three times in Rev. Ernst Miller's book "Geschichte der bernischen Täufer" (probably available at the Musselman Library at Bluffton, Ohio), at pages 1174 (uncomplete), 179/80 and 191 (those two do not quite match but they are accurate, as they were picked up in official government records). By the way, there is a surely an error. (I wrote it with ~~Hans~~ Hans Zaugg from Sigriswil is recorded in all three lists. The last where he lived before being arrested:

"Auf dem ~~Gut~~ ^{*} zu Sigriswil" at Grat was corner. Twice already I was there with two Americans named Zook, of Mennonite extraction: Judge Abner Zook of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Fancher Zook Freeman from California. (Judge Zook can probably give you her address.) If you can manage to have a trip to Switzerland,

I would be glad to "show you around."
So you might at least have a look at the very spot where Hans Zaugg lived.

On the other hand, it is quite impossible to find out his family, parents and ancestors. The church records of Sigriswil for the years 1618 to 1654 were lost long ago. I do not think that there is a connection between Hans Zaugg

there were a relationship, this could not be found in documents.

There are still many Zauggs in the country. In eleven common* or townships Zaugg people were ~~that~~ what we call citizens already 300 years ago. Now they are spread widely over the country. The Address Book of the City of Berne contains about 160 entries with that name. The meaning of the Zaugg name is "with a big nose."

The letterhead reads

Mennonitischer Geschichtsverein

Someone has written on the left margin. "In brief he says - There are no Mennonites by the name of Zug now in Germany.
And it has been almost impossible to trace the family there."

Ulrich Zug,

Now be it remembred that, Ulrich Zug, emigrated to America in the year of our Lord together with others as mentioned on 1st page ancestor, (understandingly in America) I am on the the fifth generation in descent, he was born in year A.D. And Married to a Bachman daughter, ^{religious} He fled by reason of persecution from H-ton Zug, Switzerland, to America together with his sons Peter & Henry Zug, as stated on 2^d page and ar-at Phila ^{on Saturday} Sep 27th 1727, And Settled in Lancaster-ty Pa about 15 miles north from the town of Sam (then called) but now City of Lancaster, in New Township, (now called Penn, and about 1 mile nor-from the White Oak Church. He was by persuaa Mennonite, but subsequently joined the Bre-(Dunkards) church, by baptism in the year 17

² a. See page 12 foot note.

* There is a vast difference of the city and county of Lancaster now from what it was when Ulrich Zug first it, in order to give an idea of it the following will be given. In 1730, Lancaster town contained about 200 inhab. And in the year 1738, the number of taxables in Lancaster county was 2560. May 1st 1742, Lancaster was incorporated as a borough, by George Thomas, by charter.

W. A. B.

He had a bible when he came over to America which he had brought along with him said bible was printed in Basle Switzerland in the year A.D. 1712, which is now in the possession of Andrew Zug, near Lititz Lancaster Co. Pa. one of his great, great, grand Sons, as a relic and is highly esteemed.

July 20th 1743, his brother-in-law Michael Bachman[†] con-veyed to him 345 acres of land with 6 per cent allowance for roads for the sum of £60, and a yearly allowance of $\frac{1}{2}$ penny per acre to the Proprietors heirs and one ear of Indian corn for each 100 acres annually on 1st of November to the Bachmans heirs. This land with 657 more acres was probably taken up by Ulrich Bachman, but for convenience sake was all deeded to Bachman & by him to Ulrich.

[†] Note from Rupp's history of Lancaster Co. — "Many also had, prior to the issuing of Anne's proclamation, (it was in 1709) a determined to seek refuge in America. The Canton of Bern in Switzerland, had employed Christopher de Graffenreid & Lewis Mitchel, as pioneers, with instructions to search for vacant lands in Pennsylvania, Virginia or Carolina. Before those of Bern had fully executed their project they were induced to fly for safety, to London, in the vicinity of which, they pitched their tents, and were supported at the public expence until they could be shipped off for America — Some sailed for New York, — where they arrived in Dec. 1709, many of whom settled in the city of New York; others in Germantown, &c. — Many of the ancestors of those who first settled

Ulrich Bachman's Descendants

Before I proceed with Ulrich Zug's descendants further I will first ^{give} a short sketch of Michael Bachman's lineal descendants.

Michael Bachman, a brother to Ulrich Zug's wife came over to America, sometime prior to ¹⁷¹² Zug, and settled at the Chiques, near Manheim Lancaster Co. Pa., he was a Miller by occupation and at custom mill there by the time his brother-in-law Zug, came over to him and at a later period (time unknown) he purchased 1000, acres of land at the Horse shoe pike now called Fontana, Lebanon Co. Pa. (So I was informed by my uncle John Zug, deceased there is a large number of his descendants still living there at present and are

* However he must have moved to Lebanon Co. some time before 1750, for we find in the history of Berks & Lebanon Co. compiled by J. Daniel Rupp the following: "Lebanon Township, contained in 1750, nearly 130, taxables, as appears from the Tax Duplicate, Adam Ulrich was collector for that year, Their names have been preserved." Then the names follows, and among their names appeared the name Michael Bachman, this shows that he lived in Lebanon County by that time, the township was called that time "Solomon Township" then he gave the in-

Michael & Magdalena Engg Frantz's Descendants.

Mrs. Magdalene, daughter of Ulrich Engg, Esq. to the writer's grandfather, as mentioned on page 27 I was married to Michael Frantz Jr. who was born in Germany about the year 1728, and came to America with his father, when only about two [2] years of age. Some time after their marriage, they moved from Lancaster Co., Pa. to Botetourt Co., Va. When & where she Magdalene died is not known, though my presumption is that she died in Botetourt Co., Va. Her husband Michael Frantz, died about the year 1810 aged about 82 years. They were blessed with eight sons & one daughter, viz: 1st m. Michael, son to Mannus, 2^d m. Abraham, 4th m. Christian, 5th m. Jacob, 6th m. Daniel, 7th m. Peter, and 8th m. David. The daughter's name is not known, she was married to Mr. — Gantz.

* His father Michael Frantz Jr. was baptized Sep 2nd, 1734, together with 19 others, by the Brethren [Dunkards] in Lancaster Co., Pa. and became the first Minister, & Elder of the Leesport & White Lake church in said county. He died A.D. 1748. for more see G. Hospital Visiter, Art 3, [1855] No 1, page 4 & 5.

The said Michael Frantz Jr. arrived at Philadelphia either Sep 3rd or 27, [only 3 days after Ulrich Engg's arrival] with the ship Molly, John Hodgeson, Master from Rotterdam, on Aug 11, 1732, with the ship Samuel, of London. The latter ship had also on board, Aaron Frantz, of London. The writer's informant, Rev. Johannes Frantz, was of the opinion that he came to America in 1730, but as the said 2 ships were the only ships, recorded in S. Daniel Rupp's history of Immigrants, that had any Frantz's on board, is conclusive evidence that he arrived either in the one, or the other. After Aaron Frantz, having been informed of this fact, then, he, upon due meditation concluded that the said Michael

I will say please excuse me for not answering you sooner. But I will give reasons for not doing it sooner on account of sickness in my sister and brothers family and both have died. I will answer your first request by way of introduction who I am if it is not improper which I hope it is not. I am a descendent of Jacob Hertzler who by reason of persecution and by persuasion a amish Menonite minister who fled from Palatine France in the reign of Louis the 16 in the Ship St. Andrews, James Abererombie Master, from Rotterdam Holland and landed at Philadelphia Sept. 9, 1749 and moved to Bern Township, Lancaster Co. Pa., at this time Upper Bern, Berks Co. 2 miles west from Hamburg on the Harrisburg Road and I am of the fourth generation. My father's name was Daniel Hertzler who was the son of Jacob and Barbara Hertzler of Upper Bern township, Berks Co. who was the son of Jacob and Catharine Hertzler who fled from France. Jacob Hertzler my great grandfather had 4 children, 3 sons and one daughter called by name John and Jacob and Fanny and Christian. The Hertzlers in Lebanon County are the descendants of John Hertzler who was a brother of my grandfather. Jonathan Hertzler that lives near Richland Station, Lebanon Co. is a second cousin of mine. I suppose you know him. He has 2 sons ministers in the German Baptist Church, John and William Hertzler. This answers your first.

My mother's name was Barbara Zug, a daughter of Christian and Magdalene Zug of Whiteland township, Chester Co. Pa. who was elected minister at the age of 22 years of the Amish Menonite Church and preached for over 52 years; was born April 20, 1752 near North Kill in Berks Co., was married to Magdalene Blank, daughter of Nicklous and Christiana Blank who fled from Switzerland for reason of Roman Catholic persecution and lived in Lancaster Co. Christian Zug died Oct. 8, 1826, aged 74 years, 5 months and 19 days; was the father of 10 children, 4 sons and 6 daughters, named as follows: John, born Sep. 28, 1774, died 1822; Christian born April 27, 1776, died April 6, 1804; Barbara born Jan. 25 1778, died Dec. 29, 1852; Magdalene born Nov. 24, 1779, died Feb. 17, 1861; Anna born Sept. 27, 1781, died Jan. 20, 1861; Elizabeth born Aug. 4, 1786 and died Dec. 27, 1855, was not married; Jacob born Oct. 30, 1788, died March 14, 1864 and was the father of John Zug whose name I mentioned in my former letter to you; Christiana born March 24, 1792, died Aug. 16, 1859; Henry born March 18, 1794, died June 9, 1866 and one infant died. This is all grandfather Christian Zug family who was the son of Christian and Anna Zug whose maiden name was Anna Kanabel who were natives of southern Germany and residents in the vicinity of Heidelberg and had 8 children, 4 sons and four daughters, names- Anna, Barbara and Elizabeth and Margaret, married, John, Yost, Jacob and Christian, these all married and have descendants in Chester Co. Philadelphia, Lancaster Co., Juniata Co., Mifflin Co., Somerset Co. and Lawrence Co., Pa. and some in Maryland and North Carolina and in the western states. Moritz A. Zug, Johannes Zug and Christian Zug, my mother's grandfather were 3 brothers that came to America Sep. 21, 1742, were imported in the Ship Francis and Elizabeth, George North Master from Rotterdam and were sold for their passage money. They were the grandchildren of Hans Zang of Berne, Switzerland who was a Menonite minister and was imprisoned in Berne with Uly Baumgarten and Anthony Himmelberg and Jegly Schlebach and others in A. D. 1659 and were liberated by the government of the United Netherlands interceding in their case about the latter of the year 1671 and then went to Southern Germany about Heidelberg and was the father of 12 children. I will here refer you to Martyr's Mirror Page 1021 and Page 1023 of the same book fifth extract from the same obersueltzen Jan. 5th A.D. 1672 you will find there a man who was a minister in the North who had a family of 12 children, said to be our progenitor Zug and was told by Moritz A. Zug and Christian Zug to their children and down in their generation to this time. I will now say to you what my mother said in regard of Ulrich and Peter Zug. She told me they were cousins of Moritz A. Zug and Christian Zug and Johannes Zug. My progenitor of my mother or my great grandfather Zug who came to this country in 1742 and I believe she had reason to say so for her father and grandfather lived on one farm and heard her father talk about it by times is reasonable to think so in the family as his house was the place of many of the German and Swiss Menonite resorted to him for counsel and information where to locate and to make their homes after they arrived in this country and great grandfather Christian Zug visited Europe, his native home, some time before the Rev war and brought some of his friends with him back to America with him, my mother said and my mother spoke often to me about the Zug genealogy and their friends coming to visit them and stopping with them in the early days. When they hauled their produce of the farm on Conestoga wagons to Philadelphia market and I had a long talk with my mother in 1851 about the Zug family and she told me that Ulrich and Peter came to this country some years before her grandfather and that they visited each other by times. I will say to what my uncle, Jacob Zug said to at one time in talking of the Zug genealogy. He was of the opinion, he said, that Ulrich Zug and Peter Zug were uncles of Moritz A. and Christian Zug and Johannes Zug. But as he was some 10 years younger than mother I think she was correct for mother was about 10 years old at the time her grandfather died. I will now close on this, fearing that you may not realize an interest in the above and might weary your patience. But give it only such credit as you think proper.

And I will now give you a short biography sketch of Moritz A. Zug as given to me by Shem Zug of Bratton township who was at one time a resident of Brown township, Mifflin Co., Pa. But a resident of the said township in that county at _____. I paid him a visit this week. He is getting very frail and feeble but of sound mind and cheerful and enjoys a friendly call very much. He is at this nearly 82 years old and was talking to me about things that happened some 50 and up to 65 years back with pleasure about the Zug genealogy. I will now give it as he told me. Moritz A. Zug who was born in Pfaltz or Palatine in Germany who was the grandchild of Hans Zug who was driven from Switzerland by persecution and was a minister of the Menonite Church A. D. 1671 about latter part of the year and who then settled in the Pfaltz. What Moritz A. father's name was I cannot positively say. But my father told me, I think, it was Jacob. Moritz A. Zug had 5 children, sons John, Christian, Henry, Abram and Jacob. My father John Zug ~~had~~ came to Mifflin Co., Pa. in 1793. So did Christian and died there. Henry and Jacob lived and died in Chester Co. Pa. Abram died in Lancaster Co. Pa. Two of Abram's grandsons went to Mississippi to raise cotton and were murdered by the Ku Klux. My father John Zug had 7 sons and 5 daughters. I am the youngest son by 10 years, am now in my 82 year and have one sister living who is 87 years old. The names of my brothers were John, Abram, Christian, Joseph, Jacob and David. They all have numerous offspring except Jacob who had no children. There are now living in Mifflin Co. 38 families of the name of Zug, all descendants of Moritz A. Zug. Samuel Zook who commanded a brigade and fell at the conflict at Gettysburg, Pa. was a great grandson of Moritz A. Zug. One of his sisters married Col. William Wayne, the only male descendent of Col. Anthony Wayne of the Revolutionary war and who inherited all his wealth amounting, it is said, to several hundred thousand dollars. Shem Zug is the father of 12 children. Six died, 3 sons living and three daughters living; has 8 grandchildren. The Zug families are nearly all Mennonites or German Baptist with some Quakers or Friends.

I believe this answers your request with the Zug genealogy. My father Daniel and Barbara Hertzler had 10 sons and 2 daughters. 7 died, three sons living and 2 daughters living at this date. I am the youngest by some 5 years of the family, was born on the 8 day of November, 1822 in Caernarven township, Lancaster Co. Pa. My father moved to Juniata Co., Pa. April 1834. My brothers and I live on the old homestead property offour father. I am not married. My seven brothers have all married and have offspring. So have my sisters. Two of my father's family died infants. All the rest grew up to be men and women. This I believe answers all your request. I have written to Andrew Zug of Litzitz and he answered last week, but got ne more information than you gave me in your letter.

Trusting this will give satisfaction and if you wish any other information Ican give I will cheerfully do so if I can. Please answer if you receive this. Yours respectfully

John Hertzler Senier

Index of Graveyards
Michael Zug's Genealogical Records

Here and there in Michael Zug's genealogical records we are told where individuals were buried. There are numerous instances in which it is noted that information was obtained from tombstones but, regrettably, the names of the cemeteries are not always given. The index below lists those that were recorded. Since the data was gathered over a period of about 25 years centered a century ago, it should be kept in mind that some place names have been changed and some sites, as burial grounds, have disappeared entirely. This is particularly true of private family burial places on farms. Of the public cemeteries it is my recollection that all the bodies buried in the Reformed cemetery at 10th and Walnut streets and the Lutheran at 8th and Willow were removed many years ago. Only the names of persons recorded specifically are listed. It is likely in many cases that spouses and other immediate family members were buried at the same place. Page numbers with the prefix "M" refer to the Moyer Family Records, the others to the Zug Genealogy.

ZUG

I have the rest of the text of this letter⁴
w/ Willard Z. Francis wife from Bridgewater have numerous offspring, of the name of Zug, all descendants of Moritz. Samuel Zook who commanded a brigade and fell at the conflict at Gettysburg, Pa. was a great grandson of Moritz Zug. One of his sisters married Col. William Wayne, the only male descendant of Col. Anthony Wayne of the Revolutionary War and who inherited all his wealth amounting, it is said, to several hundred thousand dollars. Shem Zug is the father of 12, six died, 3 sons living and 3 daughters; has 8 grandchildren. The Zug families are nearly all Menonites or German Baptist with some Quakers or Friends.

I believe this answers your request with the Zug genealogy. My father Daniel and Barbara Hertzler had 10 sons and 2 daughters. 7 died, three sons living and two daughters living at this date. I am the youngest by some 5 years of the family, was born on the 8 day of November 1822 in Caernarvon township, Lancaster Co. Pa. homestead property of our father I am not married. My seven brothers all have married and have offspring. So have my sisters. Two of my father's family died infants. All the rest grew up to be men and women. This I believe answers all your requests. I have written to Andrew Zug of Lititz and he answered last week, but got no more information than you gave me in your letter.

Trusting this will give satisfaction and if you wish any other information I can give I will cheerfully do so if I can. Please answer if you receive this.

Yours respectfully,

signed -- John Hertzler Senior

Some observations:

Page 171 of Michael Zug's genealogy, not pub., that the above Shem Zug died on December 18, 1880 -- 8 months after the above letter was written.

MICHAEL ZUG -- the man to whom John Hertzler, Sr. addressed the above 1880 letter. He was a 5th generation descendant of Ulrich Zug who came in 1727. Michael was born 1832, died in 1910. He devoted many years to the gathering of information on the various Zug families, especially in the 1880's. He worked on various other family lines as well -- but didn't get around to publishing any of his work.

Michael's son-in-law, Mr. Jay G. Francis, a genealogist in his own right, did some work on the Zug family, but his main effort was in continuing the work Michael had started on the Royer family -- which Mr. Francis did publish many years ago.

The papers of Michael Zug and Mr. Francis were then passed along to Mr. Willard Z. Francis (son of Jay G.) with whom I have been corresponding for some years. Willard has been very helpful, not only with leads and suggestions, but loaned his g-f's pages on the Zug family (which I copied) etc. He also sent me a copy of his recently completed index of the names contained in the genealogies and related materials compiled by Michael Zug. This index has a great many pages (typed) with about 9400 names. The surname Hertzler, for example, is listed 117 times -- with the christian name of Jacob appearing 14 times. All of Michael's papers have now been turned over to the Lebanon Co. Pa. Historical Society. Now quoting from a recent letter received from Willard:

"I think John Hertzler, Sr. and Michael Zug must have exchanged a great deal of information. Hertzler acknowledges his indebtedness to Michael Zug for data on Ulrich Zug's descendants on p. 367. He in turn must have supplied much of the data on the families of Christian, Moritz and John Zug. In his records my grandfather recorded the sending of nine letters to John Hertzler and the receipt in return of twelve."

It was Willard who sent me, some years ago, the above copy of the 1880 letter. Whether any of the other eleven letters mentioned still exist -- I don't know, at this writing.

Lois Ann (Zook) Mast has been a researcher for some years. In 1979 she published "Only a Twig", "A Branch of the Zugs/Zooks of Pa.", a 211 page book covering: 1) the up to date descendants of Major David M. Zook (s/o Preacher Abraham who was grandson of Moritz), 2) The 1st 3 generations of Christian and Johannes, the brothers of Moritz, 3) her visit to Switzerland to "The Grat" (home of Hans Zaug Ancestor) and search thru Bernese Archives, 4) History of Allensville, Pa., 5) A complete Index. Lois Ann was Librarian/Genealogist for 5 years at the Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society in Lancaster, Pa. until August 1981, when she resigned to prepare (with her husband, J. LeMar Mast) publishing "Mennonite Family History", volume 1 to come out in January 1982. Published quarterly, the annual subscription is $12.50. Their address is P. O. Box 171, Elverson, Pa. 19520-0171.

Another active Zug/Zook researcher is Harry D. Zook of State College, Pa. who descends from Moritz. He has spent many hours doing research work on the Zug's in Pa., including Peter (B/O Ulric) also at Salt Lake City, Utah at LDS Library. His address is 828 Thomas St., State College, PA 16801.

Here and there throughout his genealogical records Michael Zug gave the names and locations of cemeteries where individuals were buried. The following is an alphabetical index of those burial places. Private cemeteries are listed under the names of the landowners at the time with the names of later owners added where given. It must be kept in mind, however, that this information was recorded at least 80 years ago. Landmarks mentioned here may since have disappeared. Some private cemeteries were found to be in a deplorable state when Michael Zug visited them. Today, likely, some of them can no longer be found. There are cases in which whole cemeteries have been moved. This is true in the case of the Reformed Cemetery at 10th and Walnut and, I think also, of the Lutheran Cemetery at 8th and Willow Streets in Lebanon. The same cemetery may be listed under different names. The indexer does not know, for example, whether the Reformed Cemetery in Schaefferstown is the same as the Reformed and Lutheran in that town. Millbach and Millcreek may refer to the same church. In the few instances in which inscriptions in whole were copied from tombstones they are given here verbatim. When the text states that the dates of birth and death were taken from the tombstones the dates are underlined. The name of a town alone is probably of little help except where the town has only one cemetery. There are a few such cases. It may be that some names were mistakenly taken to be church names when they were in fact private graveyards. The numbers in parenthesis refer to pages in the Zug and Moyer genealogies. Rev. Jay G. Francis, Pastor,
Church of the Brethren,
138 Cumberland Street,
Lebanon, Lebanon County, Pa.

My dear Reverend Francis:

I recently read with interest your erudite paper on "The Church of the Brethren of Lebanon County," presented on September 15, 1916 before the Lebanon County Historical Society, and published in their bound reports which I found in the Burton Historical Library of this city. In fact, I was so interested that I have procured through the courtesy of Mr. Charles D. Weirick, Secretary and Librarian of that Society a pamphlet copy of your informative paper.

My interest arises out of the fortunate fact that I am the husband of Beth (Garwick) Lacy (b. 1877), daughter of Henry Garwick (1837-1902) and Anna (Zook) Garwick (1844-1889) of Clyde Township, Whiteside County, Illinois, both of whom were members of the Brethren in Christ. Anna Zook (1844-1889) was the daughter of Abraham Zook (1820-1889) and Nancy (Gsell) Zook (1823-1887), who came to Clyde Township from Franklin County, Pennsylvania about 1858. Her father was John Gsell, Jr., (d. 1873), who lived in Antrim Township, Franklin Co., Pa., and whose father was John Gsell, Sr., who settled in Antrim Township, as early as 1792, coming from the vicinity of Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pa. Abraham Zook (1820-1889) was the son of Joseph Zook (Zug) (d. 1852) of Green Township, Franklin County, who came there from Warwick (now Penn) Township, Lancaster County. He was the son of Joseph Zug, Sr (d. 1821) and wife, Barbara, of Warwick Township, he, being the son of John Zug, (and Anna-Hefflefinger Zug), whose will was dated Oct. 27, 1804, codicil dated May 24, 1814, were proved in Lancaster County on March 11, 1822, and who died 1821/22 near Lititz, Warwick Twp (Penn), Lancaster Co. He was father of Elizabeth, who in 1780, married Abraham Stauffer (b. 1748), son of Daniel Stauffer (b. 1726) who came to Lititz in 1738/39. John Zug (d. 1821/22) was son of Ulrich Zug (d. 1747) who on July 19, 20, 1743, bought 345 acres in Warwick Twp. from Michael Baughman. (Deed Book N-425). All of these people were members of the Brethren in Christ, most of them ministers, elders or bishops, and one of the brothers of my wife was a minister of that church.

John Zug (d. 1821/22) was a very old man when he died, for when he made his will in 1804, he recited that he was then "old and weak in body." (Lancaster County Record of Wills, Book N, Vol. 1, p. 139). His son-in-law, Abraham Stauffer, moved to the vicinity of Antrim Township, Franklin County, about 1792, probably alongwith the Gsells, and he was one of the founders of the Church of the Brethren there.

I am satisfied that this John Zug was the same as John Zug (1731-1821) referred to in your manuscript. He was a member of the Brethren in Christ for 72 years, and served as a minister or bishop in that church for 52 (some say 55) years. He had a son Abraham Zug, whose wife was probably Susanna (Unrecorded deed: Aug. 17, 1805, Lancaster Co), and who served as executor of his father's will. I think he was the same as Abraham Zug, Minister of the church at Richland, and who died in 1841.

According to my record, as I have worked it out, the line was: (I am omitting names not in direct line, but I have rather fully worked out the whole tribe):

1. Hans Zug (of Switzerland).
 - (2) Peter Zug, Sr.
 - (3) Ulrich Zug (d. 1747).
2. Ulrich Zug (d. 1747) (arrived 1727).
 - (11) Michael Zug m. Barbara
 - (12) Jacob Zug m. Elizabeth. No children.
 - (13) Peter Zug
 - (14) John Zug (1731-1821/22) m. Anna Hefflefinger.
 - (15) Christian Zug (d. 1815) m. Barbara Bollinger
 - (16) Henry Zug
 - (17) Magdalena Zug m. Mr. Frantz.
 - ← (18) Catharine Zug, m. Mr. John Musselman
14. John Zug (1731-1821/22, m. Anna Hefflefinger).
 - (29) Joseph Zug, eldest son, (d. 1821) m. Barbara.
 - (30) John Zug (1763-1824) m. Margaret Mohler
 - (31) Abraham Zug (d. 1841)
 - (32) Christian Zug (d. bef. 1804).
 - (33) Veronica Zug.
 - (34) Barbara Zug.
 - (35) Elixabeh Zug, m. 1780 Abraham Stauffer.
 - (36) Catharine Zug
 - (37) Maria Zug
 - (38) Anna Zug.

While I started out to find out the ancestral line of my wife, the study of the people, their religious attachments and their neighbors, and the life of these early pioneers so interested me that I found myself studying the whole tribe, their intermarriages, and their neighbors, and this inevitably led me to a consideration of the whole of the Brethren in Christ communities, because of their many intermarriages and the close-knit interests and relationships of these very exemplary and thrifty, ^{humble} for whom I have the very highest esteem and admiration.

Knowing that your wife was a Mary Zug, I have taken the liberty of writing particularly regarding this family; and I will be very grateful to you for any corrections or suggestions you may offer to me in my preparation of a tribute I desire to pay to the tribe from which my wife has sprung. I suppose I have a thousand pages of notes on the Zooks (Zugs) and their neighbors and fellow church communicants.

I am particularly interested in writing you because I understand from Mr. Weirick that you are working out a very elaborate compilation of the Light Family and have compiled a history of the Royer family.

Will you tell me, if you know, whether or not the John Zug (1831/1821) who was the minister of the Brethren in Church of whom you wrote and who was the father of Abraham, who died in 1841, was the same John Zug who was the son of Ulrich Zug of Warwick Township, Lancaster County? Any data you can suggest to me, I shall appreciate. In return, I shall be glad to respond to your request for any information which I may have been able to gather.

Inasmuch as Mr. Weirick has been so kind to me, I am taking the liberty of sending him a copy of this letter. He will be interested to know that recently, our very fine Detroit Athletic Club, of which I am a director and the treasurer, installed a very fine mural, done by Dean Cornwall, one of the great muralists of this day, in our Club, and it is entitled "The Treaty of Lancaster". Our president of two years was K. T. Keller, of the Chrysler Corporation, a descendant of the Kellers of Lancaster County, who intermarried with the Zugs. So, you will observe that way out here in Detroit, we are looking back to your particular section of the country with considerable interest, and I hope to motor through your beautiful country next summer as we did last summer.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur J. Lacy

My dear Mr. Frances -

I am greatly indebted to you for your letter. I think you have set me on the right track. I think there were two contemporaries Joseph's in Green Top Franklin Co., - one, Joseph Jr. (who m. ~~Fanny~~ Fanny Gsell), son of Joseph Jr. (wife Barbara), son of John (wife Anna Hufleifiger) son of Ulrich (who came in 1727); and Joseph Zook (whose son Abraham m. Nancy Gsell), son of Abraham (wife Mary Kunkel) son of Moritz, ~~son of Peter~~ (who came in 1742) son of Peter (who came 1727) who may have been son of Hans. I think the Zook family now in West Wheeland Twp., Chesnut Co., still has the old family bibles brought here by Peter who came in 1727 which probably would disclose the relationship of Peter to Hans and to Ulrich & to Moritz. Fanny and Nancy Gsell were sisters, and if you do not have it, send you the copy of John Gsell's will (d. 1873) which shows this & that they m. neph Abraham.

I do want your book on the Roger Family & herewith my check for $7⁵⁰. I shall wish to communicate with Mrs. Frances and probably have her check my data & supplement it as to Joseph, Abraham, Moritz, Peter, Hans & line.

Very sincerely

Arthur J. Lacy.
