Joseph Lawrence second son of Bro Wm & sister Barbara Gripe Patrick, was born April 17 1882, in Ill. where a part of his boyhood life was spent. He, in later years came to Ind. He married Sister Lydia Huber, to which union five children were born, one son passed on in infancy. In the spring of 1918 he went with the Old German Baptist Church to which he remained faithful. In Oct. 1929 he met a serious accident which nearly cost his life. He recovered sufficiently to go on his business as traveling salesman. In 1939 he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage which again disabled him for some time. In Nov. 1944 he was returning to his home in Elwood Ind. He was struck with a heart attack which resulted in death a few mins later. He leaves to mourn his departure a broken hearted companion four children, Hazel Fash (Mrs Joseph J. R. Geneva H.
