Ulric Zug's Genealogy.

Reproduced in an Epitomized (abridged) form, known as the 9th Volume.

Ulric Zug, the Ancestor of this sketch, was a native of the Canton of Zug, Switzerland. From where he fled in consequence of Religious persecution ^{as he was} and emigrated to America in the ship James Goodwill together with Peter, Henry & George Zug (Cousins of him) arriving at Philadelphia Sept. 27, 1727. He settled one Mile north of what is now known as Unionville, near White Oak Station, Lancaster Co. Pa. He died in 1758 or '59. (see Vol. 1st P. 11.)

He was married to a Miss Bachman, (see P. 13-15, Vol. 1) and had raised a family of six sons & two daughters, viz:

9 In this order they have all joined in a deed to their brother Jacob Zug, who is however presumed by the writer from good authority to have been the oldest of the family. (see Vol. 1st, P. 30 & 31.)

x Ulric Zug was by persuasion a Mennonite, but joined the Brethren (Dunkard) Church, by Baptism in 1742.

His Family Bible, printed in Basle, Switzerland in 1712, is yet in good preservation and in the family of the late Andrew A. Zug, near Lime Rock, Lancaster Co.

7 Peter Zug (P. 1.) when born & died was not to be obtained, and it is presumed that he remained unmarried. He was baptized in 1747 under the eldership of Michael Frantz of the Conestoga Church in Lancaster Co. Pa. From whence he went to near the Potomac river Md. This is about the history I have of him. (See P. 17, Vol. 1st)

7 Johanna (John) Zug, My G-Grandfather on P. 1. was m. to Anna Hefflinger born in the year 1729 in Switzerland from whence she emigrated at the age of about 8 years together with her mother who died on Ocean while coming to America. She died Oct. 25, 1816, at the home of her son Eld. Abraham Zug (where they lived but a few years) and is buried at the Rogers Burying Ground one mile west of Richland, Lebanon Co. Then after her death, he returned again to his homestead and lived with his son Joseph, one mile north the White Oak Church Lancaster Co. where he died at the ripe age of 89y, 8mo. & 21 days. He was baptized in the year of 1749 at the age of 18 years, and was elected to the Ministry about the year 1772, ordained in 1780² and had the overseer of the White Oak Church. He preached for almost 50 years. for more of him see P. 18-22 Vol. 1st. He had raised a family of 4 sons & 6 daughters.

x Anna's Sister Veronica m. to John Hummer for her genealogy see P. 261 Vol. 4. Also two brothers for their Genealogy see P. 55 to 73 Vol. 6.
