Dear Evelyn,

I recently received correspondence from Barbara Fahey in Beaverton, OR. She indicated that you are doing FRANTZ research, too.

I just started researching my maiden name, FRANTZ, and have woefully little information. In early December I had the extremely good fortune of locating my great-great-grandfather in the local LDS library. Prior to that we only knew that his name was "David." We would never have found him without the names of his daughter-in-law and her father because FRANTZ was spelled FRANCS on the 1870 census.

Enclosed is the information that I found on that census and my pedigree chart. I have lots of information on other branches of my family tree--thanks to some cousins that have been doing research for several years. After I got all the information entered into the computer genealogy software, I was so infatuated with genealogy that I had to find more information on my maiden name.

There are some public records for Michael I, II, III and Christian I, II, III. I'm trying to see if there is a connection between my great-great-grandfather and those progenitors in early America.

I will appreciate any information that you can provide. I thank you in advance for your courtesy and consideration.

Warmest regards,
