

December 29, 1997

Dear Lorraine,

This is rather ironic. Today I mailed your letter I wrote forepart of December. I am in the process of converting my file cabinets to hanging files and found these letters, etc. in "Unknown Frantz" file.

I did identify in your book -

Benjamin Bashor - Mrs. Imogene Young, descendant

John W. Spitler - genealogy sheets I had made of 2 children
(p 51 of Gale Honeyman Spitler history - his index says p 52)

Lydia Frantz
John Spitler

I could not identify Rebecca Adelia Frantz as given by Mabel Haworth.

I could not identify Theobald Frantz of Stark Co. as given by Chapman.

I am sending these to you to do with as you please. I have kept correspondence with Frantz people I have corresponded with that I could identify with; however, these mean nothing to me, and if you can identify and want to destroy, that's okay. If you can't identify and still want to destroy, that's fine too, although does a genealogist ever do such a thing?

Time to get some leftover on table for supper. I was shopping all day, nice sunny day, in the 30's.

You don't need to acknowledge receipt of these nor answer my reply to your letter. Hopefully, if you didn't answer the phone you were gone and with friends.

Love, Gladys

*Sorry when I print my BK5 & forget to turn printer off & on again,
this comes out & I have too much scrap paper now. Love you ☺*
