CLARA FRANTZ HEARS CALL; DIES NEAR PYRMONT

Clara Jane Frantz, daughter of Jacob H. and Martha Frantz, was born near Beatrice, Neb., April 11th, 1879, and died at her home near Pyrmont, March 28, 1910, aged 30 years, 11 months and 17 days. She leaves to mourn her departure, a father and mother, one brother and two sisters, and many other sorrowing relatives and friends, whose hearts are made heavy by the loss of their dear one. While her illness was only of two weeks' duration, it's course was marked by great suffering and throughout the entire sickness she was so patient and good. She was a member of the Pyrmont Old German Baptist church and had always been a true and faithful member. While her life was only of short duration on this earth, she was loved and respected by every one who knew her. She died at the home of John Shulties, where she had been employed as his housekeeper for over three years. She will be greatly missed by him and his family. But with all that loving hands could do for her they could not keep her with us. Her brother is Edward G. Frantz and her sisters are Ida E. Patrick and Anna S. Graybill, all living near Pyrmont. The funeral was preached at her home church by Elders J. F. Flora of this city and J. W. Clear of Rossville, Wednesday at 11 o'clock, to a large, attentive and sympathizing congregation. She was buried in the church cemetery. Thus a sweet, sparkling dew-drop of earth has gone to make up a part of the great rainbow of heaven.

EDWARD G. FRANAZ DIES AT HOME IN CLAY TOWNSHIP

Edward G. Frantz, 69, died at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon at his home in Clay township after a two-weeks' illness. Born March 31, 1877, he was the son of Jacob and Martha Gerlach Frantz. His marriage was to Minerva Jane Beggley, who survives. Also surviving are the following children: Charles Arthur, of Frankfort; Everett Edward, of New Haven, Ind.; John Garland, of Frankfort; Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Beery, of Cerro Gordo, Ill.; Misses Martha and Dorothy Alice Frantz, at home. A sister, Mrs. Ida Patrick, of Anderson, also survives. He was a member of the North Fork German Baptist church. The body was taken from the Letter Funeral Home to the residence Wednesday. Burial was made in the North Fork German Baptist cemetery.

Gerlach, Sister Elizabeth, nee Frantz, born near New Carlisle, Ohio, died at the home of her daughter in Girard, Ill., June 11, 1911, aged 81 years, 5 months and 10 days. She had been an invalid for many years, but she bore her suffering patiently. She was a member of the Church of the Brethren and lived a devoted Christian life. She is survived by a daughter and a stepdaughter. Services at the Brethren church in Girard by Eld. W. H. Shull, assisted by Eld. J. J. Harshbarger. Text, 2 Cor. E. 1—Vinna C. Harshbarger, Girard, Ill.

FRANTZ—Martha H. Frantz, daughter of George and Elizabeth Gerlach, was born in Lancaster Co., Pa., Nov. 13, 1862. Departed this life May 21, 1932, at her home in Flora, Ind., aged 70 years, 6 months and 8 days. She was united in marriage to Jacob Frantz, Feb. 25, 1872. They lived together 60 long years. This union was blessed with four children: three daughters, Ida E. Patrick, of Flora, Ind., Clara J. Frantz, who passed away Mar. 28, 1910 at the age of 30 years, Anna S. Graybill, of Clayton, Ohio, and one son, Edward G. Frantz, of Bringham, Ind. She leaves her aged husband, who depended on her so much. There survive three children, sixteen grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, with many other relatives and friends to mourn her departure. She became a member of the Old German Baptist church at an early age and remained faithful in her faith till the morn of May 21, when found by her companion cold in death by his side in their bed. Oh! let us be prepared to meet our God at any time or any place. She will be missed so much in her home by her devoted aged companion and her children and grandchildren too. But we need not sorrow as those who have no hope. Mother was always so much interested in her family's welfare and surely was a great comfort to us. But we cannot wish her back in this world of sin and sorrow, for we feel that she is at rest now from all earthly troubles that we have to bear. Her funeral was preached by elders John F. Flora and Jacob Skiles at the meeting house in Flora, Ind., after which we tenderly laid her away in the North Fork cemetery by the side of Sister Clara. One by one our loved ones leave us, and soon we shall all follow, and we think what a joy it will be to meet on the other bright shore where there's no more parting or tears of sorrow fall.

The Family.

FRANTZ—In the North Fork of Wild Cat church, Carroll Co., Ind. our beloved sister, Clara Jane, daughter of Bro. Jacob H. and Sister Martha H. Frantz. Born in Gage Co., Neb. Apr. 11, 1879; died March 28, 1910 aged 30 yrs. 11 mos. and 17 days. She leaves father, mother, one brother, two sisters and many other sorrowing relatives who very much miss her bright and smiling face which we will never see again on earth. At the age of 16 years she united with the church and lived a consistent life to the end being firm in the faith and always a regular church attendant. Sister Clara's disease was typhoid pneumonia with complications of other diseases. She died away from home where she had been employed by one family over three years as their housekeeper. We were so glad and very thankful to our kind heavenly Father that we could be with her and do all that loving hands could do for her until the end came. It was the first time for the angel of death to enter father's family. But this has to come to all sooner or later. Only let us be prepared for the great change. Funeral preached by Bro. John F. Flora of the Flora church assisted by Bro. John W. Clear of the Middle Fork church. Text 1 Thess. 4 ch., selected by the father.

Hymns 383, 409, 392 and 411 in the brethren's hymn book, selected by the family. Written by her sister.

IDA E. PATRICK.

OBITUARY

"Crowns of glory, raiment white,
Palms of life's eternal day.
Ever deck the saints of light,
Who on harps of Angels play.
Lo the victors bring their palms,
To the tree of life on high,
And declare in grateful psalms,
'Jesus for our Souls did die.'"

"The days of our years are three score and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is there strength, labor and sorrow for it is soon cut off, and we fly away."

This Mother in Israel to whom these lines are dedicated in loving remembrance, had been spared to her attentive and dutiful children and many dear friends for more than four score years. Elizabeth Gerlach, whose maiden name was Frantz, was born near New Carlisle, Ohio, January 4th 1830, and departed this life June 14 1191. She was married to Joel Brubaker on February 4th 1849. To this union were born three children and all of them died in infancy. About two years later she was married to George Gerlach. To them were born four children, two dying in infancy. Two daughters grew to womanhood, one daughter Mrs. Tabitha Stutsman having preceded her to the Spirit land passing away nine years ago, and Mrs. Alice Lynch of this city, who has so carefully and tenderly cared for her mother for the past eight years, is left to mourn the loss of a loving devoted mother. Also a step-daughter, Mrs. Martha Frantz of Owasco, Indiana. She leaves to mourn her loss two children, nine grandchildren and twenty-two great grand children two brothers, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends.

A good woman has been removed from our midst. She was a faithful wife, an affectionate mother, a consecrated church member and an unselfish neighbor. She had been a cripple and a sufferer in many ways for months, and even years, yet she bore all submissively and uncomplainingly. "By their fruits ye shall know them," and she manifested the fruits of her spirit in her daily life.

The funeral services were held at the Church of the Brethren on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. William Shull, assisted by Rev. Isaac Harsharger, and the remains were laid to rest in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

"There are three words that sweetly blend,

That on the heart are graven,
A precious, soothing balm they lend—
They're Mother, Home and Heaven!
They twine a wreath of beautiful flowers,

Which placed on memory's urn,
Will e'en the longest, gloomiest hours
To golden sunlight turn!

They form a chain whose every link,
Is free from base alloy;
A stream where whosoever drinks,
Will find refreshing joy!

They build an altar where each day,
Love's offering is renewed;
And peace illumine with genial ray,
Life's darkened solitude!

If from our side the first has fled,
And home be but a name,
Let's strive the narrow path to tread
That we the last may gain."
