Rosemary,

7/23 July 1981

In my letter of 13 Jul to the Illinois State Archives, requesting from their card file the names of LURETTA JANE & ELIZABETH FRANCIS/FRANCES/FRANTZ, THEIR REPLY CAME today saying Luretta could not be found in any county on the 1850 census.

So, today am requesting these names from their NAME INDEX TO EARLY ILLINOIS RECORDS. From their list of itemized records this seems the only other possibility. No fee or self-addressed envelope is required. If there is a charge, I will be billed later.

Here's hoping--

The Boonville Standard 13 Feb 1879

Died at the residence of Andrew Krantz, in Boonville, Spot, the friend of all honest patrons of the St. Charles Hotel. But woe to the fakir or sneak thief that came prowling around at unusual hours. Spot was a good dog (DORK) & has gone where all good dogs go. Where the wicked cease from giving strychnine, and where good dogs rest. His friends mourn his loss, but it is the dog's gain.

20 Feb 1879 - Andrew Krantz has had the experience of the powerful effects of electricity upon the nervous Rosemary Krantz system.
