The Frantz Family

By Bernice D. Eller

The Frantz Family

Michael Frantz Sr. was born 9/1/1687 in Basel, Switzerland. He with his wife and daughter and son Michael Jr. came to America on the ship "Molly" John Hodgerson, master; from Rotterdam and Deal. They landed in Philadelphia, Pa. on 9/30/1727. They located in the vicinity of Cocalico in Lancaster Co., Pa. where he soon became the leader and minister for the Conestoga German Baptist (Church of the Brethren) church. He served this church from 1735 until he died in 1748. He was buried in the old graveyard near Cocalico.

Three days before the Frantz family landed in Philadelphia, Ulrich Zug and his wife Barbara had landed from the ship "James Goodwill". They also settled in Lancaster Co. near the Frantz family. Later their daughter Magdalena and Michael Frantz Jr. were married. They had nine children here and most were married in Pa. But after the American Revolution some if not all moved to Botetourt Co. Va. near Salem. Evidently Michael Jr., the father, went with them or followed shortly after for he died there, and was buried in 1807. Like his father, he was a minister of the Gospel in the German Baptist Church all of his life.

Four of these Frantz sons married four Garst (or Gerst) daughters. A bit about the Garst family from "The Garst Family in America" by William Tell Garst.

1. Dewalt (Theobold) Garst b. c. 1708 landed in Philadelphia, Pa. on Sat. 8/14/1758 from the ship "Patience"-- Captain Hugh Steele comanding, Rotterdam and Cowe, Eng. wife---Magdalena Catherina ???

2. John Nicholas Garst Sr. b. 1725 d. 1803

To America in 1757 a year before the arrival of his father.

m. c. 1748 Mary Elizabeth ?

Children---Frederick, John Nicholas Jr., Catherine, Mary, Magdalena, Anna Jacob, Marie Elizabeth and Abraham.

11 3-3 Christian Frantz Sr. b. 1762 d. 3/6/1850
m. c. 1783 Mary Garst b. 1762 d. 8/8/1838

Married in Pa. and moved to near Salem, Va. c. 1790. In 1814 they and their 9 children moved to a homestead about 8 mi. N.E. of what is now Springfield, Ohio. Here his son Jacob built in 1835 the brick house and the barn which are still standing (1930) and in good condition and owned and occupied by Henry Dresher. The brick house was built to replace the big log house that his father Christian Sr. had built when the family first moved there from Va. Christian Frantz died here and is buried in the cemetery located about 1/2 mile So. of the Jacob Frantz home. A rough marker without names or dates marks his grave. Likewise the graves of Jacob Frantz and his wife Sarah Ebersole Frantz. Christian Sr. often called Elder Christly, was said to be of small stature, of a pleasant and genial disposition and was much respected by all. He spoke only German.

They lived in the old log house in Clark Co., O. that his grandfather Christian had built. And their first two children, Rebecca and Phebe were born there. In 1847 they moved to the site of their new home 5 mi. NC. and W. of No. Manchester, Ind. The story goes that Christian Never liked to ride horses or in a "rig" drawn by horses. That he walked all the way from near Springfield, O. to No, Manchester, Ind.
