Frantz

Michael, Chrustean & Baltzer.

Evelyn Rosemary Frantz said — in letter to Willard Frances that she was having a problem proving the brothers lived at Hasloch, Palatinate or St Jacob Parish of Basel, Switzerland. (ERF had been to both places.)

Immigrant Christian Frantz

Re: Matthias Frantz

Willard Z. Francis said he indexed the Matthias book and worked on it "for a few years before publication."

Immigrant Christian arrived on the Samuel, 11 Aug 1732 w/

Christian II (over 16)

birth?

→ Michael * " "

Note: I have nothing in my database on Michael + Johannes *.

Matthias Frantz III lived a mile & a half west of Rohrerburg, Berks Co., PA.

"In the year 1760 Christian Sr. obtained a deed for a large tract of land most of which has been owned and occupied by his descendants (1895)."

Immigrant Michael Frantz
Michael Zug wrote about Elder J (John) H (Hoff) Royer and Emig Royer etc. On
p. 32 of the material "Michael Pfautz, 2nd elder of the old conestoga church ... buried at Middle Creek Ch/B."

Immigrant Michael buried there too?

Michael Zug's hand written (w/p #148)
"... he died A.D. 1748. For more see N. Gospel Visitor Vol 3 [1855] No 1, page 445."

Known re: Michael Frantz
"M.F. was born in the Canton of St. Joseph, nigh T. Basel Switzerland (date not given)."
— See p. 39, FF-KK, Vol 1 —

"In the year 1748" died. Reportedly from The Church of the Brethren, chapter re: Ch/B in Lancaster Co., pp 82-83.
— See p. 39, FF-KK, Vol 1 —

See also pp 37-38. Arthur Shanks says
b. 1 Sept 1687 in St Jacob, near Basel
d. Dec 1748 in Cocalico Twp, Lanc. Co., PA so would not take the body all the way back to Middletown because 1 miles.

Note: History of the Dunkers + the Brethren
Church, p. 327, say M.F. was baptized
29 Sept 1734 in Conestoga, Lanc. Co., PA.

He [is said to have been] chosen "overseer" of the new church at Conestoga
"on the same day he was baptized, that he had already been recognized as the leader of the small band of members, and had been the real organizer of the new church."

A year later he was ordained Elder, and placed in charge of 2 congregations at Conestoga and White Oak. Cocalico not mentioned.

Conestoga is present Middle Creek, White Oak " ch in Lititz.

" Little cemetery overlooking the Conestoga" [is] the place of burial for M.F.... "

"... It is believed that the grave of M.F. is among these marked your old ones marked with rough field stones."

← * p. 11 of PA Mennonite Heritage states 29 Sep 1734, "a great religious meeting was held on the farm of 'Ephrata' John Landis where the Cocalico/Conestoga congregation became independent from the Beissel group...."

From Flory's Literary Activity of the German Baptist in the 18th Century
p. 208 (but following Michael's writings in the Supplement of FF-KK).
"Elder Frantz died in Dec, 1748. He was buried in an old graveyard on the Cocalico creek near his home?
and near the place where he had done such valiant service in the cause of Christ...." Elsewhere Shanks says died in Cocalico Twp.

History of the Ch. of the Brethren,
Ch of the Brethren in Lanc. Co., pp. 82, 83 (but after Michael's writings in the Supplement).

1748

1687

61

"In the following year..."

"In the year 1748 is our elder and overseer (Michael Frantz) departed
this life...."

Also above book, pp. 325-326.

" " " p. 327 "... died

25 Sep 1748...."

Re: Michael II

According to Dore Frantz "The home farm of M.F. II is along U.S. Rt 222, about 1 1/2 miles south & west of Reams Town. ... He (M.F.) got a patent to 2 tracts in that vicinity from the Penn family and it was here that the 3 sons and 1 daughter were reared." Dore could give no further info at that time. p. 42, FF-KK, Vol 1.

See p. 45, FF-KK, Vol 1

Wrong
info.
Chp &
I ch'd.

"... Michael Frantz (Frantz) patent as recorded in Patent Book AA, Vol 3, p. 298 ... situated in East Cocalico Twp, about one mile south & west of Reams-town, Lancaster Co...."

Yes, this date on land info from Dore. 1759

See p. 44, FF-KK, Vol 1

"... 1759, The year he obtained title to his farm in Cocalico Twp...."

Moved to Botetourt Co. between 1784-88?

See p. 25, FF-KK, Vol 1

"... probably between 1780-1790."

Bomberger has Michael Frantz Jr.
baptized in 1748 but Magdalena
Jug not listed.

"Records of the church at Conestoga state that he [M.F. II] was baptized
Apr 24, 1748 and Magdalena
June 12, 1748. I think [says Dore] it is very likely they were married not long after this." FF-KK, Vol 1, p 44
