"Church History of Kansas tells us there were drought years, grasshopper years, and dust-bowl years to deal with during those pioneer times.

"In the Gospel Messenger of April 30, 1935, Brother D.A. Crist writes from Quinter, 'Brother Zigler, we have had no moisture since last June -- the dust is causing death to both man and beast.'

"In answer to this need David Frantz (1817-1905) made several trips to Kansas to bring seed and relief goods. Ethel Weddle says in Pleasant Hill that the Crist brothers stay in Kansas and endured even when other men were returning to the East. Isaac, John E., Henry F., and Daniel Albert Crist were the four Crist brothers who preserved the land in such a way that it produced wheat and more wheat... this in addition to their teaching and preaching." "On November 9, 1901, Myrtle Crist Porter was born into the home of Rev. and Mrs. D.A. Crist near Quinter. After receiving her elementary education at Quinter, she attended the Academy at LaVerne College, LaVerne, California, in 1920, and the following year attended Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago. At an early age she was baptized into the Church of the Brethren, which she served faithfully for many years. On March 12, 1925 she was united in marriage to Milford C. Porter and they became the parents of two sons, Irwin who now resides near his parents and Larry Jay who died in infancy.

"Although her physical being was tormented with years of ill health she continued to serve her family, her friends, and her God in patient, cheerfulness, and humility, and became a source of inspiration to all who knew her. Myrtle's greatest joy came as to others she gave her time, energy, and her talents. Through the medium of the written word she gave inspiration to those who read her stories and poems. In October of 1961, the Kansas Churches honored her with a 'Citation' in recognition of her inspirational pageants of church history. Her life so filled with Christian love for family, church, and friends and her faith in God will be a continued message to all who knew her." Michael Frantz Descendants.
