

HCD - Frantz

W-Red I first started in 1964 at 5, Palatine

Frantz's came from Germany - Palitinate Valley (?)

Petty nobility - Von in front of Frantz (?)

Doubt it.

George and John Family names -

Marshall Frantz - Mag illustrator in Roanoke, Virginia - Roanoke Ct
John's great-Nephew

John Frantz owned two farms in Swayzee, Indiana - Grant County Owned flour mills, also Turned into potatoe farm ---

Uncle Charley and Henrietta Hoke of Kentucky (son of John) lived at Swaggs Ind.

Ras family Bible John brought from Roanoke Sons - John & Harry -

Uncle Lee - barn burned - imported Percheron horses inside - screamed as burned to death - Uncle Lee lost his mind. (son of John)

When Civil War broke out, John Frantz refused to fight because of brothers in south (Roanoke, Va)

John and brother from Illinois went to New Orleans and Paid two negroes 100 dollars each to enlist in the southern army under their names - and John's was killed --

Uncle Lee was named for Robert E. Lee and when he was around 5 years old, Robert E. Lee was captured - surrendered - and his father was discussing while driving home from town with a friend and Lee, what they were going to do with Lee now they had him - and Grandfather said, "Hang him, I suppose." After about 10 minutes, Uncle Lee started yelling "I don't want to be hung, I never did naything to be hung for"! ----

Uncle Jim (son of John) Metamora, Illinois - Children - Frank, Emma - Costella, William, wife Mary (German Catholic)

Grandmother Frantz - 2nd wife - don't know first wife - 1st wife - James, Abner, Edward, Mary, Charley (as old as 2nd wife)
2nd wife - Lee, Francis, Clarence (gambler who went to Mexico City came back broke and lived on Chan And Frances for a year)
Francis Virginia Frantz - H&s mother

Her cousin Frank Frantz - 1st gov of Okla - Appointed by Teddy Roosevelt - he was impeached (in rough riders with Teddy and why appointed) - Roosevelt went to Oklahoma City after made a state in 1907 - Frank and Teddy rode down the main street with a chorus (or a girl of ill repute) on each knee and drunk, and while the President couldn't be impeached, Frank could'.

after his appointment term was up - according to an article I have from Okla
John Frantz - started towns of Roanoke - Woodford County and Virginia-Cass County - Illinois

The First Frantz came to Roanoke, Va. - he came to the United States either alone or with his brother - with his share of the family inheritance ---

Charles - John & Harry

I'm sending to you

article I have from Okla

Handwritten notes in red ink at the top left, including "1944" and "my mother".

John's great-nephew
Mrs. Hall Frantz - Mag. Illustrator in Roanoke, Virginia - Roanoke Co
George and John Family names -
Betty nobility - Von in front of Frantz (?)
Frantz's name from Germany - Palatinat Valley (?)

Handwritten notes in red ink on the left side, including "light brown" and "John".

John Frantz owned two farms in Swazee, Indiana - Grant County Owned flour mill, also
Turned into potatoe farm ---
Uncle Charley and Margaret Hole of Kentucky (son of John) - Uncle Lee - born burned - imported Percheron horses inside - as burned to death - Uncle Lee lost his mind. (son of John)
When Civil War broke out, John Frantz refused to fight because of progers in south (Roanoke, Va)
John and brother from Illinois went to New Orleans and paid two negroes 100 dollars each to enlist in the southern army under their names - and John's was killed --

Handwritten notes in red ink on the left side, including "John" and "Robert".

Uncle Lee was named for Robert E. Lee and when he was around 5 years old, Robert E. Lee was captured - surrendered - and his father was discussing while driving home from town with a friend and Lee, what they were going to do with Lee now they had him - and Grandfather said, "Hang him, I suppose." After about 10 minutes, Uncle Lee started yelling "I don't want to be hung, I never did anything to be hung for!"

Handwritten notes in red ink on the left side, including "John" and "Emma".

Uncle Jim (son of John) Metamore, Illinois - Childless - Frank, Emma - Colette, William, wife Mary (German Catholic)

Handwritten notes in red ink on the left side, including "John" and "Grandmother".

Grandmother Frantz's 2nd wife - don't know first wife -
1st wife - James, Adner, Edward, Mary, Charley (as old as 2nd wife)
2nd wife - Lee, Francis, Clarence (Gambler who went to Mexico)
Gly came back broke and lived on Chan and Frances for a year)
Francis Virginia Frantz - Her mother

Handwritten in black ink: "This was among Evelyn Rosemary Frantz box of info."

Handwritten notes in red ink at the bottom left, including "John" and "Virginia".

The first Frantz came to Roanoke, Va. - he came to the United States either alone with his brother - with his share of the family inheritance
LFE
6/1/03

Handwritten in black ink: "I'll put w/ the Okla Frantz."