Dear Lorraine,

We spoke by phone last evening. I am sending you the family group sheets that I have on the Fullhart family that are a direct line from Henry I to me.

also the death certificate of Joel Fullhart showing his mother as (Miss France) - That was my first clue to the Frantz family. Then I found the marriages of John and Henry II to Anne and Mary France/Frantz.

See information included. Hope this will help you. I have more but it might not be what you are needing at this time. We are still working on details within the family.

I would like for you to send me anything you feel would be helpful in further tying the 2 families together. as you can see I do not have a computer but keep a note book.

Isn't this exciting? Hope to hear from you soon

Best wishes
Joyce Fullhart Beggs

Joel Fullhart,

One by one the sturdy oak trees fall by the wayside, one by one the grand old patriarchs lay down in dignity and in serene peace the scepter of life which has become only a burden to them.

Joel Fullhart was born in Virginia, Mar. 13, 1820, moved to western Ohio when about three years old where he lived approximately nineteen years. From there he moved to Indiana in the spring of '39. From Indiana he moved to Iowa living in Henry, Lee and Keokuk counties.

His marriage to Miss Nancy Milbank of Tennessee in 1843 began a companionship of over half a century in these more than fifty years were born to these estimable people fourteen children of whom but two survive Marion Fullhart and Mrs. Eliza Harris.

He moved in 1862 to Putnam county Missouri and located on the Mullins land near Omaha he made his final move in '84 to the place which for nearly fifty years has been his home.

In 1896 the companion who had so long shared his toils and pleasures passed from his life leaving the ache which only the vacant chair can bring. In these intervening years he dwelt in the old home under his granddaughter's care and affection brightened his declining years. Beginning life with two strong hands and a brave heart his life is an example to young men of what can be accomplished by honest, earnest, persistent effort. One scarcely knows which to most admire, his sturdiness of character, his gentle dignity or his childlike kindness of heart.

which prompted him to conceal a gift in the giving as he has been known to do.

He was the last of twelve children and died of blood poison at the old Fullhart homestead on June third 1912 age 92 years 2mo and 21 days. He leaves 32 grand children 44 great grandchildren and 2 great great grand children to mourn his death. After a brief ceremony at the house the long funeral procession slowly wound its way to Concord church where an exceptionally strong sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Rehman after which the body was laid to rest in the Concord Cemetery.
