Dear Lorraine,

July 1, 1999

I am so, so sorry for not getting back to you sooner. My life had some complications, and I'm still trying to deal with them. But my genealogy has been a retreat. I'm spending all I have down to my Dad. I got a lot of my info from the Henchel genealogy Book. The most recent being my own and my Dad's verbal info. (Sorry I don't write well and should type this, but I'm at work and want to get this sent off). Thanks so much for your patience. I know that I won't get to that reunion, but if I can help in any way, I will work on "details" and get them sent to you. My Dad was a "black sheep" and was a loner. He had very little to do with his family. We were his family. I don't have anything past my g. grandpa Elijah, tho I'm still working on it. I just got started, too late to catch anyone still alive. When the work was done on the Dykles, the wife's names and families were neglected. I'm trying to find info on Mary Ellen Mauley and Elizabeth Sutherland. I would like more info on Magdalena Landes, also. Since I can't afford professional help, I was very happy to find on the Net volunteers who look for vital statistics for the cost of copying and sending I'll be E-mailing my requests on these women.

Please forgive me and I promise to keep in touch.
